PREFACE

THE obvious distinction, and we believe excellence, of this collection of hymns and tunes is its smallness. In its standards and quality of workmanship, literary and mechanical, it emulates the best among its many honorable rivals of recent date. But it is unlike them in its ideal and claim, which is to provide amply for all the uses of the churches in their various services, with but five hundred and fifty hymns. Of tunes it contains but four hundred, only about half as many as either of the two books of late coming into use in our churches. This Hymnal is rich in both hymns and tunes that appear for the first time, or are beginning to prove their superior charm and worth. Three-fourths of the tunes, however, are old-time or recent favorites, or are so steadily pushing into use that they must soon be counted as familiar. By repeating these, and by grouping together hymns of the same meter, a large proportion of the hymns, especially of those most often used, are brought into company with familiar tunes. The plan of grouping by meter makes it possible to sing fully two-thirds of the whole number of hymns with the use of only half as many tunes, and at the same time to give each hymn its own tune, judged to be most perfectly mated to it. Thus the book is designed to be available for congregations musically weak, and yet provide for the tastes and ambitions of those with finer equipment and culture,—in the hope that our churches may have one common manual of worship in song which all can unite in using, and so concentrate their musical efforts upon such a number of hymns and tunes as they can be expected to learn and use. Only so can we hope to enlarge the range of religious song, now so pitifully meager, at the command of our people. By having less we shall use more, for the paradox is here true, the part is more than the whole. This book is better for the uses of a congregational hymnal than it would be with twice as many hymns and tunes, even were they as good as these.

But in fact, much that holds a place, as if by prescriptive right, in our current hymnology, and is allowed to inflate our hymnals, is, either as poetry, or as song, or as Christian hymns, unworthy of its sacred function and debasing to taste and religious feeling. The heroic removal of this element not only reduces the bulk of a book, but leaves room to enrich where we are poor, and to respond to the yearning of the life and faith of to-day for more hymns to express, communion with God in his nearness and living presence, fellowship with Christ, enthusiasm for humanity, the passion of service, consecration to the kingdom of God on earth.

The smaller the selection, the more difficult and dangerous the task of deciding between competing claims. For what is done here this can be asserted: it is the result of no merely personal, sectional or local preferences. It represents in the first place a wide consensus of opinions, lay and clerical, gathered from all parts of the country, and duly weighed as well as counted; and secondly, the careful study and censorship of the work in all its stages and phases, by a smaller advisory board who have generously contributed experience, skill and labor to this service of the Church.

This brings us to a second, and even more important characteristic of this book. It is in every way the product of the churches for which it is prepared. It is made and issued by our own publishing house. It adjusts itself, in its compactness, to the confessed experience of the churches and to their general demand for a hymn-book less bulky and expensive. In contents it corresponds to the wishes and needs of the churches so far as they can be learned. And, better still, it keeps up the continuity of the hymnology of our free churches; for though catholic in its inclusion of whatever is good, and serviceable for us, from hymns ancient and modern of all communions, the main body of it is still made up of the hymns which our fathers sang, and of the present day successors of that stock.

To the editing of the hymns have been given no less thought and labor than to their selection. The aim has been to find and furnish the best versions; to choose such stanzas as shall make each hymn a unity, brief enough to be sung as a whole; and so to classify and arrange the hymns as both to make readily accessible the full resources of the book, and help to interpret the hymns. Further to define and reveal the meaning, an expressive title is set over each hymn, put in half quotations when it is the title given to it by its author. Over translations the first line of the original is used as title. To show that a hymn has been altered since its writing, the author's name is printed in italics. The date after the name is that of the writing or publication of the hymn, or of the birth and death of the author.

We respectfully urge all who would judge, and especially those who are to use, the book to turn to the Editorial Notes at page 570, where they will find important help to the appreciation and use of the hymns, tunes, chant-forms, responsive readings and indexes. We call attention to the acknowledgments there made, as particularly as our limits of space permit, for many gracious favors and priceless helps. The names of many friendly co-workers and contributors must pass unmentioned. No doubt they will count their reward great, as we shall ours, if among the churches we love, and have herein labored together to serve, there shall be found of the Father more of such as he seeks, who worship him in spirit and in truth.

1. O wor - ship the King all glo - rious a - bove, O grate - ful - ly sing his power and his love,—Our Shield and De - fend - er, the
An - cient of Days, Pa - vil - ioned in splen - dor, and gird - ed with praise. A - MEN.

O Come Let Us Worship

2 O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail:
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend!

O Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness

- 2 Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.
- 3 Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness
Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine:
Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings to lay on his shrine.
- 4 These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
He will accept for the Name that is dear;
Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
Trust for our trembling, and hope for our fear.

- 3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy, there is none beside thee,
Perfect in power, in love and purity.
- 4 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea;
Holy, holy, holy! merciful and mighty!

Praise him! praise him! praise him! praise him! Praise the ev - er - last - ing King! A - MEN.

Bless the Lord, O My Soul

2 Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him, still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise him! praise him!
Glorious in his faithfulness!

3 Father-like he tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Praise him! praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows!

4 Angels, help us to adore him,
Ye behold him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before him,
Dwellers all in time and space.
Praise him! praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace!

Psalm One Hundred

1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

3 O enter then his gates with praise,
Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

2 The Lord ye know is God indeed,
Without our aid he did us make,
We are his folk, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.

4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

In this world and the next.

3 All praise and thanks to God,
The Father, now be given,
The Son and Holy Ghost,
Supreme in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

In spirit meek and lowly;
To all who learn or teach,
Give wisdom pure and holy.
In solemn awe we bend,
All wondering round thy throne;
And thee, our Lord, our life,
Our joy, our gladness, own.

3 All praise and thanks to thee,
Eternal Lord, be given,
For all thy help on earth,
For all our hopes of heaven;
Thy name, above, below,
Through æons yet to come,
All saints and angels sing,
Their light, their peace, their home!

Of chanting with the choir,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
This song of sacred joy,
It never seems to cloy;
May Jesus Christ be praised!

4 When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

5 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

6 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let earth, and sea, and sky
From depth to height reply
May Jesus Christ be praised!

7 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this the eternal song,
Through all the ages long,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Veni Sancte Spiritus

2 Come, tenderest Friend and best,
Our most delightful guest,
With soothing power;
Rest which the weary know,
Shade 'mid the noontide glow,
Peace when deep griefs o'erflow,
Cheer us this hour.

3 Come, Light serene and still,
Our inmost bosoms fill,
Dwell in each breast;
We know no dawn but thine,
Send forth thy beams divine
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest.

Joy Cometh with the Morning

2 Thou art our Morning and our Sun,
Our work is glad, in thee begun;
Our footworn path is fresh with dew,
For thou createst all things new.

3 O God, within us and above,
Close to us in the Christ we love,
Through him, our only guide and way,
May heavenly life be ours to-day!

1 Light of the soul, O Saviour blest,
Soon as thy presence fills the breast,
Darkness and guilt are put to flight,
And all is sweetness and delight.

2 Son of the Father, Lord Most High,
How glad is he who feels thee nigh!
Come in thy hidden majesty,
Fill us with love, fill us with thee.

Abiding under the Shadow of the Almighty

2 In each event of life how clear
 Thy ruling hand I see,
 Each blessing to my soul more dear
 Because conferred by thee.
 In every joy that crowns my days,
 In every pain I bear,
 My heart shall find delight in praise,
 Of seek relief in prayer.

3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
 Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
 Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
 My soul shall meet thy will.
 My lifted eye without a tear
 The lowering storm shall see;
 My steadfast heart shall know no fear,
 That heart will rest on thee.

All Thy Works Shall Praise Thee

2 Praise the Lord, for he is glorious,
 Never shall his promise fail;
 God hath made his saints victorious,
 Sin and death shall not prevail.
 Praise the God of our salvation;
 Hosts on high, his power proclaim!
 Heaven and earth, and all creation,
 Laud and magnify his name!

3 Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
 Lord, we offer unto thee;
 Young and old, thy praise expressing,
 In glad homage bend the knee.
 All the saints in heaven adore thee,
 We would bow before thy throne;
 As thine angels serve before thee,
 So on earth thy will be done.

1. Bring, O morn, thy mu - sic! bring, O night, thy si - lence! O - cean, chant the

- 3 Light us, lead us, love us! cry thy groping nations,
Pleading in the thousand tongues, and calling only thee,
Weaving blindly out thy holy, happy purpose,—
Who wert and art and evermore shalt be.
- 4 Life nor death can part us, O thou Love eternal,
Shepherd of the wandering star, and souls that wayward flee;
Homeward draws our spirit to thy Spirit yearning,—
Who wert and art and evermore shalt be.

Sing of His Love

2 O tell to earth's remotest bound,
"God is love;"
In Christ is full redemption found;
"God is love."
His blood can cleanse our sins away;
His Spirit turns our night to day,
And leads our soul with joy to say,
"God is love."

3 In heaven we shall sing again,
"God is love;"
Yes, this shall be our noblest strain,
"God is love."

Love Passing Knowledge

2 There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice,

There is mercy with the Saviour,
There is healing in his blood:

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine

For miracle and sign;
Anoint our eyes to see within
The common, the divine. | 3 And if thy casual comings, Lord,

What joy shall dwell within the faith

'Consider the Lilies, How They Grow'

- 2 We linger at the vigil
With Him who bent the knee
To watch the old-time lilies
In distant Galilee;
And still the worship deepens
And quickens into new,
As, brightening down the ages,
God's secret thrilleth through.
- 3 O Toiler of the lily,
Thy touch is in the man;
No leaf that dawns to petal
But hints the angel-plan:

- The flower-horizons open,
The blossom vaster shows;
We hear thy wide world's echo, —
See how the lily grows!
- 4 Shy yearnings of the savage,
Unfolding thought by thought,
To holy lives are lifted,
To visions fair are wrought;
The races rise and cluster,
And evils fade and fall,
Till chaos blooms to beauty,
Thy purpose crowning all.

81 (Higbland) L. M. Emmanuel, God with Us

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 And art thou come with us to dwell,
Our Prince, our Guide, our Love, our Lord,
And is thy name Emmanuel,
God present with his world restored? | 4 Thy reign eternal will not cease;
Thy years are sure, and glad, and slow;
Within thy mighty world of peace
The humblest flower hath leave to blow. |
| 2 The world is glad for thee,—the rude
Wild moor, the city's crowded pen,
Each waste, each peopled solitude,
Becomes a home for happy men. | 5 And with thy guiding help we pierce
Life's labyrinth now no longer vain;
The love that frees the universe
Hath made its broken story plain. |
| 3 The heart is glad for thee,—it knows
None now shall bid it err or mourn,
And o'er its desert breaks the rose
In triumph o'er the grieving thorn. | 6 The world is glad for thee, the heart
Is glad for thee, and all is well,
And fixed and sure, because thou art,
Whose name is called Emmanuel. |

And, dawning in a lowly birth,
Uprose the Light of man.

From childhood to fourscore,
He shared with us, that we might share
His joy forevermore;
And twice a thousand years of grief,
Of conflict, and of sin,
May tell how large the harvest sheaf
His patient love shall win.

Room in My Heart for Thee

2 Heaven's arches rang,
When the angels sang
Proclaiming thy royal degree;
But of lowly birth
Didst thou come to earth,
And in great humility:
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for thee.

3 The foxes found rest,
And the birds their nest
In the shade of the forest tree;
But thy couch was the sod,
O thou Son of God,
In the deserts of Galilee:
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for thee.

4 Thou camest, O Lord,
With the living word
That should set thy people free;
But with mocking scorn,
And with crown of thorn,
They bore thee to Calvary:
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
Thy cross is my only plea.

5 When heaven's choirs shall sing,
And her arches ring,
At thy coming to victory,
Let thy voice call me home,
Saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at my side for thee;"
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When thou comest and call'st for me.

Grows weary, line on line,
Revive our souls, and make us see
Life's water glow as wine. | 4 The social talk, the evening fire,
The homely household shrine,
Grow bright with angel visits, when
The Lord pours out the wine. |
| 3 Gay mirth shall deepen into joy,
Earth's hopes shall grow divine,
When Jesus visits us, to turn
Life's water into wine. | 5 For when self-seeking turns to love,
Not knowing mine nor thine,
The miracle again is wrought,
And water changed to wine. |

| 1 Dear Lord, who once upon the lake
Of stormy Galilee,
Didst from thy weary pillow wake
To hush the wind and sea, — | 2 Come at our prayer, and speak thy peace
Within each troubled breast;
Bid the loud winds of passion cease,
And waves of wild unrest: |
| 3 Let that deep calm our bosoms fill,
That dwells for aye with those
Who lose their wishes in thy will,
And in thy love repose. | |

I. Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old Was strong to heal and save;
It triumphed o'er dis-ease and death, O'er dark-ness and the grave.

| 2 And lo, thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned thee, the Lord of light:
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesereth's shore. | 3 Be thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
With thine almighty breath:
To hands that work and eyes that see,
Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
May praise thee evermore. |

From the flowers and birds and dew,
Parables of God;
For within his heart of love
All the soul of man did move,
God had his abode.

4 Fill us, Lord, with thy desire,
All the sinful to inspire
With the Father's life;
Free us from the cares that press
On the heart of worldliness,
From the fret and strife.

5 Lord, be ours thy power to keep
In the very heart of grief,

In our meekness to be wise,

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light,
And, listening to his accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own "All hail!" and, hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
Let earth her song begin,
Let the round world keep triumph
And all that is therein,
Invisible and visible,
Their notes let all things blend;
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our joy that hath no end.

O peaceful voice of Jesus
Which comes to end our strife!

The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But thou hast made us mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

4 "And whosoever cometh,

| 2 Come to him, ye who, in sorrow
Vainly seek relief!
He has precious balm and comfort
For each grief. | 4 Come to him! his yoke is easy,
And his burden light;
All your weakness he will strengthen
With his might. |
| 3 Come to him, all ye who wander
Weary and unblest!
In his meek and lowly service
There is rest. | 5 Come to him! all sweetest voices
Tenderly entreat:
Lay your sins and cares and burdens
At his feet. |

| 2 What thy need? He can supply it;
Longing? He can grant.
Find in him exhaustless fulness
For each want. | 4 Who has ever found him faithless?
Who has found him weak?
Multitudes his grateful praises
Joyful speak. |
| 3 Was there ever one that sought him
Yet, to be denied?
Hope has, in his gracious presence,
Never died. | 5 Aged men and gentle maidens,
Young men, children sweet,
Lay their crowns of adoration
At his feet. |

| 1 Art thou weary, art thou languid,
Art thou sore distrest?
"Come to me," saith One, "and, coming,
Be at rest." | 4 If I find him, if I follow,
What his guerdon here?
Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear. |
| 2 Hath he marks to lead me to him,
If he be my Guide?
In his feet and hands are wound-prints,
And his side. | 5 If I still hold closely to him,
What hath he at last?
Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan passed. |
| 3 Is there diadem, as monarch,
That his brow adorns?
Yea, a crown in very surety,
But of thorns. | 6 If I ask him to receive me,
Will he say me nay?
Not till earth and not till heaven
Pass away. |
| 7 Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is he sure to bless?
Saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs,
Answer, Yes. | |

2 Take, my soul, thy full salvation,
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care,
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear!
 Think what Spirit dwells within thee,
 What a Father's smile is thine,
 What thy Saviour died to win thee,—
 Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

3 Haste, then, on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there:
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days,
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door;
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore!

What power my soul shall sever?
Shall life or death, shall earth or hell?
No: I am his forever.

2 Nor walls, nor hills, could guard so well
Old Salem's happy ground,
As those eternal arms of love
That every saint surround.

3 Deal gently, Lord, with souls sincere,
And lead them safely on

1. Rest for the wea-ry hands is good, And love for hearts that pine;
But let the man-ly hab-i-tude Of up-right souls be mine. A - MEN.

The Inward Man Renewed Every Day

- 2 Let winds that blow from heaven refresh,
Dear Lord, the languid air;
And let the weakness of the flesh
Thy strength of spirit share.
- 3 And if the eye must fail of light,
The ear forget to hear,
Make clearer still the spirit's sight,
More fine the inward ear.
- 4 Be near me in my hours of need,
To soothe, or cheer, or warn;
And down the slopes of sunset lead,
As up the hills of dawn.

JOHN G. WHITTIER, 1871

Hold Thou Me Up and I Shall Be Safe

- 1 'Twixt gleams of joy and clouds of doubt
Our feelings come and go;
Our best estate is tossed about
In ceaseless ebb and flow.
- 3 Let me no more my comfort draw
From my frail hold of thee,
In this alone rejoice with awe, —
Thy mighty grasp of me.
- 2 Out of that weak unquiet drift
That comes but to depart,
To that pure heaven my spirit lift
Where thou unchanging art.
- 4 Thy purpose of eternal good
Let me but surely know,
On this I'll lean, let changing mood
And feeling come and go,
- 5 Glad when thy sunshine fills my soul,
Not lorn when clouds o'ercast,
Since thou within thy sure control
Of love dost hold me fast.

JOSEPH BARNBY, 1867

1. For - give, O Lord, the doubts that break Thy prom - is - es to me;..

For - give me that I fail to take Thy par - don, full and free;

I sought to put my sins a - way, I strove to do thy will;

And yet, when-e'er I tried to pray, My heart was doubt-ing still: A - MEN.

More Ready to Give than We to Ask

2 I thought that thou with jealous eye
Wast watching me alway,
My deeds to mark, my steps to spy,
Whene'er I went astray:
I hoped that when, by days and years
Of service and of prayer,
I had besought thy grace with tears,
Thy mercy I might share.

3 Forgive, O Father, this my sin,
This jealous, doubting heart;
For when men seek thy love to win,
And choose the better part,
I know that, swifter than the light
Leaps earthward from the sun,
Thy pardoning love, thy rescuing might
Speed down to every one.

'Psalm Twenty-seven'

1 God is my strong salvation:
 What foe have I to fear?
 In darkness and temptation,
 My light, my help, is near.
 Though hosts encamp around me,
 Firm to the fight I stand:
 What terror can confound me
 With God at my right hand?

2 Place on the Lord reliance,
 My soul, with courage wait,
 His truth be thine affiance,
 When faint and desolate.
 His might thine heart shall strengthen,
 His love thy joy increase,
 Mercy thy days shall lengthen,
 The Lord will give thee peace.

Will give his children bread."

For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid:
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be near thee thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.
- 4 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace all-sufficient shall be thy supply;
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.
- 5 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,

 Lead me aright,
 Though strength should falter and though heart should bleed,
 Through peace to light.
- 3 I do not ask, O Lord, that thou shouldst shed
 Full radiance here;
 Give but a ray of peace, that I may tread

In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.
- 5 Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and he is on the throne.
- 6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

Only, O Lord, let peace be not forgot,
Nor yet thy care,
Freedom from storms, and wild desires within,
Peace from the fierce oppression of my sin.
- 4 So may I, far away, when evening falls
On life and love,
Arrive at last the holy, happy halls,
With thee above, —
Wounded yet healed, sin-laden yet forgiven,
And sure that goodness is my only heaven.

He Leads Us On

- 2 He leads us on through all the unquiet years;
Past all our dreamland hopes, and doubts, and fears
He guides our steps; through all the tangled maze
Of losses, sorrows, and o'erclouded days
We know his will is done,
And still he leads us on.
- 3 And he, at last, — after the weary strife,
After the restless fever we call life,
After the dreariness, the aching pain,
The wayward struggles which have proved in vain,
After our toils are past, —
Will give us rest at last.

1. If thou but suf-fer God to guide thee, And hope in him in all thy ways,

Trust in the Lord and Do Good

2 I ask thee for a thoughtful love,
Thro' constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And to wipe the weeping eyes;
And a heart at leisure from itself

3 I would not have the restless will

Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know;
I would be treated as a child,

4 So I ask thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
And a mind to blend with outward life,
While keeping at thy side;
Content to fill a little space,

'A Psalm of Trust'

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 I little see, I little know,
Yet can I fear no ill:
He who hath guided me till now
Will be my leader still. 2 No burden yet was on me laid
Of trouble or of care,
But He my trembling step hath stayed,
And given me strength to bear. | 3 He will not leave my soul forlorn,
I still must find him true,
Whose mercies have been new each morn
And every evening new. 4 Upon his providence I lean,
As lean in faith I must;
The lesson of my life hath been
A heart of grateful trust. 5 And so my onward way I fare
With happy heart and calm,
And mingle with my daily care
The music of my psalm. |

| 1 My spirit on thy care,
Blest Saviour, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For thou art love divine. | 3 Whate'er events betide,
Thy will they all perform;
Safe in thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm. |
| 2 In thee I place my trust,
On thee I calmly rest;
I know thee good, I know thee just,

Pilot and Haven

2 A deep and dangerous sea,
On which we sail so fast,
And far away the haven lies,
Where we would be at last.

3 Yet when the winds are hushed,
And on the deep is rest,
Faith sees afar the heavenly land,
Where God's beloved are blest.

4 Bide then the tempest's shock,
Endure the longest night,
Wait on the Lord,— from darkest gloom
Springs up his glorious light.

5 O God, thy love is near,
Although it seem to stay;
And heaven's harborage with thee
All storms shall over-pay.

STOFFORD A. BROOKE, 1881

255 (Mornington) S. M. The Secret of Serenity

1 If through unruffled seas
Toward heaven we calmly sail,
With grateful hearts, O God, to thee,
We'll own the favoring gale.

2 Or should the surges rise,
And peace delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
That drives us nearer home.

3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to thy control;
Thy loving kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

4 Teach us in every state,
To make thy will our own;
And, when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

LOVE AND SERVICE

ALBERT L. PEACE, 1885

1. Lord, lead the way the Sav-iour went, By lane and cell ob-scure,
And let love's treasures still be spent, Like his, up-on the poor. A-MEN.

Not to be Ministered unto but to Minister

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate. | And, that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still. |
| 3 For thou hast placed us side by side,
In this wide world of ill, | 4 Mean are all offerings we can make,
But thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward. |

Sympathy

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2 Help us to help each other, Lord,
Each other's burdens bear;
Let each his friendly aid afford,
And feel his brother's care. | 3 Help us to build each other up,
Help us ourselves to prove;
Increase our faith, confirm our hope,
And perfect us in love. |

1. Heaven is here, where hymns of glad-ness Cheer the toil - er's rug - ged way,

In this world where clouds of sad-ness Oft - en change to night our day. A-MEN.

Heaven on Earth

2 Heaven is here, where misery lightened 3 Where the sad, the poor, despairing,
Of its heavy load is seen, Are uplifted, cheered and blest;
Where the face of sorrow brightened, Where in others' labors sharing,
By the deed of love hath been, We can find our surest rest,

4 Where we heed the voice of duty,
Tread the path that Jesus trod,—
This is heaven, its peace, its beauty,
Radiant with the love of God.

Baptism for Service

1 Saviour, who thy life didst give,
That our souls might ransomed be,
Rest we not till all the world
Hears that love, and turns to thee.

2 Help us that we falter not,
Though the fields are white and wide,
And the reapers, sorely pressed,
Call for aid on every side.

3 Guide us, that with swifter feet
We may speed us on our way,
Leading darkened nations forth
Into thine eternal day.

4 Sweet the service, blest the toil;
Thine alone the glory be;
O, baptize our souls anew;
Consecrate us all to thee.

Thou shalt know where to strike. | 4 Blest, too, is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye. |
| 3 Thrice blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field when he
Is most invisible. | 5 For right is right, since God is God,
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin. |

True Freedom

2 Is true freedom but to break
Fetters for our own dear sake,
And with leathern hearts forget
That we owe mankind a debt?
No; true freedom is to share
All the chains our brothers wear,
And, with heart and hand, to be
Earnest to make others free.

For the fallen and the weak;
They are slaves who will not choose
Hatred, scoffing, and abuse,
Rather than in silence shrink
From the truth they needs must think;

How they work within,
Striving, tempting, luring,
Goadng into sin?
Christian, never tremble;
Never be downcast;
Gird thee for the battle,
Watch and pray and fast.

3 Christian, dost thou hear them,
How they speak thee fair, —
“Always fast and vigil,
Always watch and prayer?”
Christian, answer boldly, —
“While I breathe I pray!”

| 2 One holy Church, one army strong,
One steadfast high intent,
One working band, one harvest song,
One King omnipotent. 3 How purely hath thy speech come down
From man's primeval youth!
How grandly hath thine empire grown
Of freedom, love, and truth! | 4 How gleam thy watch-fires through the night,
With never-fainting ray!
How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
To meet the dawning day! 5 In vain the surge's angry shock,
In vain the drifting sands;
Unharm'd upon the eternal rock
The eternal city stands. |

| 1 One holy Church of God appears
Through every age and race,
Unwasted by the lapse of years,
Unchanged by changing place. 2 From oldest time, on farthest shores,
Beneath the pine or palm,
One unseen presence she adores,
With silence or with psalm. | 3 Her priests are all God's faithful sons,
To serve the world raised up;
The pure in heart, her baptized ones;
Love, her communion-cup. 4 The truth is her prophetic gift,
The soul her sacred page;
And feet on mercy's errands swift
Do make her pilgrimage. 5 O living Church, thine errand speed,
Fulfil thy task sublime,
With bread of life earth's hunger feed,
Redeem the evil time! |

We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine. Alleluia!
- 5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!
- 6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!
- 7 But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of Glory passes on his way. Alleluia!

| 1 Sing we the song of those who stand
Around the eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,—
A multitude unknown. 2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here:
To-day, the young, the old,
Our Saviour and his flock, appear
One Shepherd and one fold. 3 Toil, trial, suffering, still await
On earth the pilgrim throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
The Church Triumphant's song. | 4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"
Cry the redeemed above,
"Blessing and honor to obtain,
And everlasting love!" 5 "Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing,
"Who died our souls to save!
Henceforth, O Death, where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave?" 6 Then alleluia, power and praise
To God in Christ be given;
May all who now this anthem raise
Renew the song in heaven. |

1 Blest be the tie that binds

3 We share each other's woes,
Each other's burdens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

4 When we are called to part
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way,
While each in expectation lives,

'Abide in Me and I in You'

- 1 Abide in me, O Lord, and I in thee!
From this good hour, O leave me never more!
Then shall the discord cease, the wound be healed,
The life-long bleeding of the soul be o'er.
- 2 Abide in me; o'ershadow by thy love
Each half-formed purpose, and dark thought of sin;
Quench, ere it rise, each selfish, low desire,
And keep my soul as thine, calm and divine.
- 3 Abide in me; there have been moments blest
When I have heard thy voice and felt thy power,
Then evil lost its grasp, and passion hushed
Owned the divine enchantment of the hour.
- 4 These were but seasons, beautiful and rare;
Abide in me and they shall ever be;
Fulfil at once thy precept and my prayer, —
Come, and abide in me, and I in thee.

HARRIET BEECHER STOWE, 1855

'This Do in Remembrance of Me'

- 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
Here drink with thee the royal wine of heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.
- 3 This is the hour of banquet and of song,
This is the heavenly table spread for me;
Here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong
The brief, bright hour of fellowship with thee.

(After Communion)

- 4 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love is past and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but thou art here
Nearer than ever, still my shield and sun.
- 5 I have no help but thine, nor do I need
Another arm save thine to lean upon:
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in thy might, thy might alone.
- 6 Feast after feast thus comes, and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above,
Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

'A Hymn of the Saviour'

2 Thou art our Holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife:
Thou didst thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

3 Thou art the great High Priest,
Thou hast prepared the feast
Of heavenly love:
While in our mortal pain,
None calls on thee in vain:
Help thou dost not disdain,
Help from above.

4 Ever be thou our Guide,
Our Shepherd and our Pride,
Our Staff and Song:
Jesus, thou Christ of God,
By thy perennial word,
Lead us where thou hast trod;
Make our faith strong.

5 So now and till we die,
Sound we thy praises high,
And joyful sing:
Infants, and the glad throng
Who to thy Church belong,
Unite to swell the song
To Christ our King.

Thou art the fulness of our partial sight;
We are not perfect till we find the seven;

Some ask a human image to adore,
Some crave a spirit vast as life and love:
Within thy mansions we have all and more;
Gather us in.

Sea too long divides the lands,
Kindred claims are calling. | Hard we grow by selfish care,
Mutual grief refines us. |

'Freedom Our Queen'

- 2 Here at thine altar our vows we renew,
 Still to thy cause to be loyal and true,
 True to thy flag on the field and the wave,
 Living to honor it, dying to save.
- 3 Hope of the world, thou hast broken its chains;
 Wear thy bright arms while a tyrant remains;
 Stand for the right till the nations shall own
 Freedom their sovereign with Law for her throne.
- 4 Freedom, sweet Freedom! our voices resound,
 Queen by God's blessing, unsceptered, uncrowned!
 Freedom, sweet Freedom! our pulses repeat,
 Warm with her life-blood, as long as they beat.
- 5 Fold the broad barrier-stripes over her breast,
 Crown her with star-jewels, Queen of the West!
 Earth for her heritage, God for her friend,
 She shall reign over us, world without end.

- 2 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee.
- 3 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the gospel leads us home.

The day must dawn, and darksome night be passed;
All journeys end in welcomes to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.

By which supported still we stand:
The opening year thy mercy shows;
That mercy crowns it till it close. 2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still are we guarded by our God,
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led. | 3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,

Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days. |

Be thou not afraid;
I will help and strengthen,
Be thou not dismayed;
Yea, I will uphold thee
With my own right hand;
Thou art called and chosen
In my sight to stand."
- 3 For the year before us,
O what rich supplies!
For the poor and needy
Living streams shall rise;

- For the sad and sinful
Shall his grace abound;
For the faint and feeble
Perfect strength be found.
- 4 He will never fail us,
He will not forsake;
His eternal covenant
He will never break.
Resting on his promise,
What have we to fear?
God is all-sufficient
For the coming year.

Bright hope on every helm;
Through that shall pierce no fiery dart,
And this no fear o'erwhelm:
Go in the spirit and the might
Of Him who led the way;
Close with the legions of the night,
Ye children of the day!"
- 3 So forth we go to meet the strife,
We will not fear nor fly;
We love the holy warrior's life,
His death we hope to die:
- We slumber not, that charge in view,—
"Toil on while toil ye may,
Then night shall be no night to you,
Ye children of the day!"
- 4 Lord God, the high and holy One,
Thine own sustain, defend;
And give, though dim this earthly sun,
Thy true light to the end;
Till morning tread the darkness down,
And night be swept away,
And infinite sweet triumph crown
The children of the day!

2 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,

His hoary frost, his fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground;
The liquid streams forbear to flow,
In icy fetters bound.

3 He sends his word, and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.
The changing wind, the flying cloud,
Obey his mighty word:
With songs and honors sounding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

- 2 All the world is God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown:
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.
- 3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home;
From his field shall in that day
All offences purge away;
- Give his angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.
- 4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To thy final harvest-home;
Gather thou thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified,
In thy presence to abide:
Come, with all thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home!

 And bade the even and morn complete the day.
- 3 Look from the tower of heaven, and send to cheer us
 Thy light and truth, to guide us onward still;
 Still let thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
 And lead us safely to thy holy hill.
- 4 So, when that morn of endless light is waking,
 And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
 Safe may we rise, the earth's dark breast forsaking,
 Through all the long bright day to dwell with thee.

Mercies New Every Morning

2 Still the greatness of thy love,
Daily doth our sins remove,
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast,
Gives unbought, to those who pray,
Strength to stand in evil day.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Every morning, for the strife,
Feed us with the bread of life.

1 O God, I thank thee for each sight
Of beauty that thy hand doth give,—
For sunny skies, and air, and light;
O God, I thank thee that I live.

3 Another day in which to cast
Some silent deed of love abroad,
That greatening as it journeys past
May do some earnest work for God,—

2 That life I consecrate to thee;
And ever, as the day is born,
On wings of love my soul would flee,
And thank thee for another morn,—

4 Another day to do, to dare,
To tax anew my growing strength,
To arm my soul with faith and prayer,
And so reach heaven and thee at length.

New Life with the New Day

| 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice. | 5 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask, —
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God. |
| 4 Old friends, old scenes will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care. | 6 Only, O Lord, in thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above,
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray. |

Thy daily stage of duty run,
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice. | 3 Lord, I my vows to thee renew:
Disperse my sins as morning dew,
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill. |
| 2 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praise to the eternal King. | 4 Direct, control, suggest this day
All I design, or do, or say, —
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite. |

Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. | |

2 Sing a new song at morn;
Join the glad woods and hills,
Join the fresh winds and seas and plains,
Join the bright flowers and rills.

4 Cast every weight aside;
Do battle with each sin;
Fight with the faithless world without,
The faithless heart within.

3 Awake, cold lips, and sing;
Arise, dull heart, and pray;
Lift up, O man, thy heart and eyes;
Brush slothfulness away.

5 Look up beyond these clouds, —
Thither thy pathway lies;
Mount up, away, and linger not!
Thy goal is yonder skies.

HORATIUS BONAR, 1864

485 (Garrett) S. M. Early Morning Hymn

1 Sweetly the holy hymn
Breaks on the morning air,
Before the world with smoke is dim
We meet to offer prayer.

We seek, O Lord, thy sheltering shield,
To guard us from our sins.

2 While flowers are wet with dews,
Dew of our souls descend;
Ere yet the sun the day renews,
O Lord, thy Spirit send.

4 On the lone mountain side,
Before the morning's light,
The Man of sorrows wept and cried,
And rose refreshed with might.

3 Upon the battle-field,
Before the fight begins,

5 O, hear us, then, for we
Are very weak and frail.
We make the Saviour's name our plea,
And surely must prevail.

Hail, Holy Light!

- 2 Break forth, in glory far excelling,
O Light eternal, Love divine!
Let thy bright beams, all shades dispelling,
Around us and within us shine.
- 3 The heavenly hosts fall down before thee,
And, Holy! cry, nor ever rest;
The saints on earth, with them, adore thee,
Creator, Saviour, Spirit blest.
- 4 O God, if we could duly praise thee,
Could we but voice the love we see,
As sweet a song as angels raise thee,
Our Sabbath morning hymn should be.
- 5 Accept, O Father, we entreat thee,
The worship which thy children bring;
O grant us grace in heaven to greet thee,
And with all saints thy love to sing.

My soul with heavenly thoughts supply,
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest. | 4 O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close,
Sleep that may me more vigorous make

The sick, O Lord, around thee lay;
O, in what divers pains they met!
O, with what joy they went away! 2 Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near:
What if thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that thou art here. 3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had. | 4 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would serve thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within. 5 O Saviour Christ, thou too art man;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted,
tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide; 6 Thy touch has still its ancient power,
No word from thee can fruitless fall;
Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all. |

Thou, Lord, Only, Makest Me Dwell in Safety

- | | |

| 2 Jesus, give the weary
Calm and sweet repose;
With thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close. | 4 Comfort every sufferer
Watching late in pain;
Those who plan some evil,
From their sin restrain. |
| 3 Grant to little children
Visions bright of thee;
Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep blue sea. | 5 Through the long night-watches
May thine angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed. |
| 6 When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise
Pure and fresh and sinless
In thy holy eyes. | |

| 1 As darker, darker fall around
The shadows of the night,
We gather here with hymn and prayer
To seek the eternal Light. | 3 We pray thee for all absent friends,
Who have been with us here;
And in our secret heart we name
The distant and the dear. |
| 2 Father in heaven, to thee are known
Our many hopes and fears,
Our heavy weight of mortal toil,
Our bitterness of tears. | 4 For weary eyes and aching hearts,
And feet that from thee rove,
The sick, the poor, the tried, the fallen,
We pray thee, God of love. |
| 5 We bring to thee our hopes and fears,
And at thy footstool lay;
And, Father, thou who lovest all
Wilt hear us when we pray. | |

The joy, the grief, the loss,
The mountain track, the valley bright,
The daily thorn and cross, — | 4 Thou knowest all: we lean our head,
Our wearied eyelids close,
Content and glad awhile to tread
The way our Father knows. 5 And thou hast loved us! all our heart
With answering love is stirred;
And poverty and toil and smart,
Find healing in that word. 6 And so we lay us down to rest,
As nightly shadows fall;
And lean, confiding, on his breast
Who knows and pities all. |

Evening Sacrifice

2 As Christ upon the cross
His head inclined,
And to his Father's arms
His parting soul resigned,
So now herself my soul
Would wholly give
Into his sacred charge
In whom all spirits live;

3 So now beneath his eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,
Save that his will be done
Whate'er betide,—
Dead to herself, and dead
In him to all beside.

- 1 Hail, gladdening Light, — of His pure glory poured,
Who is the immortal Father, heavenly blest,
Holiest of holies — Jesus Christ, our Lord!
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest;
All times are ordered in thy word alone,
Therefore the day and night thy glories own.

We hymn thy blest humanity divine:
Worthiest art thou at all times to be sung,

Son of our God, Giver of life, alone!
Therefore shall all the worlds thy glories own.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound:
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

3 So, whene'er the signal's given,
Us from earth to call away,
Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
Glad the summons to obey,
May we ever
Reign with Christ in endless day.

'Parting'

1 As the sun's enlivening eye
Shines on every place the same,
So the Lord is always nigh
To the souls that love his name.

2 For a season called to part,
Let us, then, ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever-present Friend.

3 Father, hear our humble prayer!
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep,
Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.

4 In thy strength may we be strong;
Sweeten every cross and pain;
Give us, if we live, ere long
Here to meet in peace again.

First Reading

God Ever Present and All-Knowing

Ps.
139

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me:
Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising;
Thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou searchest out my path and my lying down,
And art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue,
But, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, And laid thy hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit?

Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:

If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morning, And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall thy hand lead me, And thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me,
And the light about me shall be night;

Even the darkness hideth not from thee,

But the night shineth as the day:

The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

For thou didst create mine inmost being,

And weave me together ere I was born.

My frame was not hidden from thee, when I was made in secret:
Thine eyes did see mine unformed substance:

And in thy book were written all my days yet to be.

I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
Wonderful are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!

How great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:

When I awake, I am still with thee.

Search me, O God, and know my heart: Try me, and know my thoughts;
 And see if there be any wicked way in me,
 And lead me in the way everlasting.

Second Reading

God, the Faithful Creator

Ps.
104

BLESS the Lord, O my soul.

O Lord my God, thou art very great;

Thou art clothed with honor and majesty:

Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment;

Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain;

Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters;

Who maketh the clouds his chariot;

Who walketh upon the wings of the wind;

Who maketh winds his messengers, Flames of fire his ministers:

Who laid the foundations of the earth,

That it should not be moved for ever.

Thou coverest it with the deep as with a vesture;

The waters stood above the mountains.

At thy rebuke they fled; At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away

(The mountains rose, the valleys sank down)

Unto the place which thou hadst founded for them.

Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over;

That they turn not again to cover the earth.

He sendeth forth springs into the valleys:

They run among the mountains;

They give drink to every beast of the field;

The wild asses quench their thirst.

By them the birds of the heaven have their habitations;

They sing among the branches.

He watereth the mountains from his chambers:

The earth hath its fill from the fruit of thy works.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle,

And herb for the service of man;

That he may bring forth food out of the earth,

And wine to make glad the heart of man,

Oil to make his face to shine,

And bread to strengthen man's heart.

The trees of the Lord have their fill,
The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;
Where the birds make their nests:

As for the stork, the fir-trees are her house.
The high mountains are for the wild goats;
The rocks are a refuge for the conies.

He appointed the moon for seasons:

The sun knoweth his going down.
Thou makest darkness, and it is night,
Wherein all the beasts of the forest creep forth.
The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.

The sun ariseth, they get them away,
And lay them down in their dens.

Man goeth forth unto his work
And to his labor until the evening.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made them all:
The earth is full of thy riches.

Yonder sea, great and wide, —
Therein are things creeping innumerable,
Living creatures, both small and great.

There go the ships;
There is leviathan, whom thou hast formed to play therein.
These wait all for thee,

That thou mayest give them their food in due season.

Thou givest unto them, they gather;
Thou openest thy hand, they are satisfied with good.
Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled;
Thou takest away their breath, they die, And return to their dust.
Thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created;
And thou renewest the face of the ground.

Let the glory of the Lord endure for ever;

Let the Lord rejoice in his works:

Who looketh on the earth, and it trembleth;
He toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live:
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

Let my meditation be sweet unto him: I will rejoice in the Lord.

BLESS THE LORD, O MY SOUL.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

Third Reading

The Majesty and Mystery of the Almighty

Ps.
29,
Job 9,
12, 26

A SCRIBE unto the Lord, O ye sons of the mighty,
Ascribe unto the Lord glory and strength.

Ascribe unto the Lord the glory due unto his name;
Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: The God of glory thundereth,
Even the Lord upon many waters.

The voice of the Lord is powerful;

The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars;

Yea, the Lord breaketh in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

The voice of the Lord cleaveth the flames of fire.

The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness; And strippeth the forests bare:

And in his temple everything saith, Glory.

He removeth the mountains, and they know it not,

When he overturneth them in his anger;

Who shaketh the earth out of its place, And the pillars thereof tremble;

Who commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; And seaeth up the stars:

He alone stretcheth out the heavens,

And treadeth upon the waves of the sea;

Who maketh the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,

And the chambers of the south;

Who doeth great things past finding out,

Yea, marvellous things without number.

Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not:

He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

With him is wisdom and might; He hath counsel and understanding.

In his hand is the soul of every living thing, And the breath of all mankind.

Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again;

He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up;

Again, he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

With him is strength and wisdom.

He uncovereth deep things out of darkness,

And bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

He stretcheth out the north over empty space,

And hangeth the earth upon nothing.

He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds;

And the cloud is not rent under them.

He incloseth the face of his throne, And spreadeth his cloud upon it.
 He hath described a boundary upon the face of the waters,
 Unto the confines of light and darkness.
 The pillars of heaven tremble, And are astonished at his rebuke.
 He stirreth up the sea with his power:
 By his Spirit the heavens are garnished.
 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways:
 And how small a whisper do we hear of him!
 But the thunder of his power who can understand?

Fourth Reading

Praise to God as Creator, King and Judge

Ps.
95,
96,
97

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord;
 Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
 Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
 For the Lord is a great God,
 And a great King above all gods.
 In his hand are the deep places of the earth;
 The heights of the mountains are his also.
 The sea is his, and he made it; And his hands formed the dry land.
 O come, let us worship and bow down;
 Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker:
 For he is our God,
 And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
 O sing unto the Lord a new song: Sing unto the Lord all the earth.
 Sing unto the Lord, bless his name;
 Show forth his salvation from day to day.
 Declare his glory among the nations,
 His marvellous works among all peoples.
 For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised:
 He is to be feared above all gods.
 For all the gods of the peoples are idols;
 But the Lord made the heavens.
 Honor and majesty are before him:
 Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
 Ascribe unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the peoples,
 Ascribe unto the Lord glory and strength.
 Ascribe unto the Lord the glory due unto his name:

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness:

Tremble before him, all the earth.

Announce among the nations, — the Lord reigneth!

And fast stands the world, unshaken;

He rules the peoples with equity.

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

Let the field exult, and all that is therein;

Yea, let all the trees of the wood sing for joy

Before the Lord; for he is come, For he is come to judge the earth:

He will judge the world with righteousness, And the peoples with his truth.

Clouds and darkness are round about him:

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

The heavens declare his righteousness,

And all the peoples have seen his glory.

O ye that love the Lord, hate evil:

He preserveth the souls of his saints;

He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Light is sown for the righteous, And gladness for the upright in heart.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous, And give thanks to his holy name.

Fifth Reading

Praise to God as Creator and Preserver

Ps.
33 REJOICE in the Lord, O ye righteous:

Praise is comely for the upright.

For the word of the Lord is right;

And all his work is done in faithfulness.

He loveth righteousness and justice:

The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made,

And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathered the waters of the sea together as an heap:

He layeth up the deeps in store-houses.

Let all the earth fear the Lord:

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast.

The Lord bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought;

He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect,

The counsel of the Lord standeth fast for ever,
The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord,
The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.
The Lord looketh from heaven;

He beholdeth all the sons of men;
From the place of his habitation he looketh forth
Upon all the inhabitants of the earth,
He that fashioneth the hearts of them all,
That considereth all their works.

Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him,
Upon them that hope in his kindness;
To deliver their soul from death, And to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul waiteth patiently for the Lord: He is our help and our shield.
For in him our heart is glad, Because we trust in his holy name.
LET THY LOVINGKINDNESS, O LORD, BE UPON US,
ACCORDING AS WE HAVE HOPED IN THEE.

Sixth Reading

Praise to God for His Righteousness and Majesty

*Ps.
100* MAKE a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness: Come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that the Lord, he is God:
It is he that hath made us, and we are his;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, And into his courts with praise:
Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.
FOR THE LORD IS GOOD; HIS KINDNESS ENDURETH FOR EVER,
AND HIS FAITHFULNESS UNTO ALL GENERATIONS.

*Ps.
98* O sing unto the Lord a new song; For he hath done marvellous things:
His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him.
The Lord hath made known his salvation:
His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.
He hath remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth:
Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.
Sing praises unto the Lord.

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein;

Let the floods clap their hands; Let the hills sing for joy together
BEFORE THE LORD; FOR HE COMETH TO JUDGE THE EARTH:
HE WILL JUDGE THE WORLD WITH RIGHTEOUSNESS,
AND THE PEOPLES WITH EQUITY.

Ps.
93

The Lord reigneth; he hath clothed himself with majesty;

The Lord hath clothed himself; he hath girded himself with strength:
And fast stands the world, unshaken.

Thy throne stands fast from of old; Thou art from everlasting.
The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,

The floods have lifted up their voice; The floods lift up their roar.

Mightier than the voice of many waters, The mighty breakers of the sea,
The Lord on high is mighty.

THY TESTIMONIES ARE VERY SURE:

HOLINESS BECOMETH THINE HOUSE, O LORD, FOR EVERMORE.

Seventh Reading

The Works and the Word of God

Ps.
19

THE heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament showeth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, And night unto night showeth knowledge.
There is no speech nor language;

Their voice is not heard.

Their line is gone out through all the earth,

And their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,

And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

His going forth is from the end of the heavens,

And his circuit unto the ends of it;

And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever:

The ordinances of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
In keeping them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors? Clear thou me from hidden faults.
Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me:

Then shall I be upright, And I shall be clear from great transgressions.
LET THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH AND THE MEDITATION OF MY HEART
BE ACCEPTABLE IN THY SIGHT, O LORD, MY ROCK, AND MY REDEEMER.

Eighth Reading

God's Greatness and Goodness

Ps.
146

I WILL extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.
Every day will I bless thee; And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
One generation shall laud thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
Of the glorious majesty of thine honor they shall tell;
And on thy wondrous works will I meditate.
Of the might of thy terrible acts shall they speak;
And I will declare thy greatness.
They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
The Lord is gracious, and compassionate;
Slow to anger, and of great kindness.
The Lord is good to all; And his tender mercies are over all his works.
All thy works give thanks unto thee, O Lord;
And thy saints bless thee.
They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, And talk of thy power;
To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that are bowed down.
The eyes of all wait for thee;
And thou givest them their food in due season.
Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways,
 And gracious in all his works.
 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
 To all that call upon him in truth.
 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him;
 He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
 MY MOUTH SHALL SPEAK THE PRAISE OF THE LORD;
 AND LET ALL FLESH BLESS HIS HOLY NAME FOR EVER AND EVER.

Ninth Reading

God's Abundant Favor to Earth and Man

Ps.
65 PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion;
 And unto thee shall the vow be performed.
 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.
 As for our transgressions, do thou forgive them.
 Happy is the man whom thou dost choose and bring near,
 That he may dwell in thy courts:
 O that we may be filled with the goodness of thy house,
 The holiness of thy temple.
 By marvellous deeds in righteousness dost thou answer us,
 O God of our salvation;
 Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
 And of them that are afar off upon the sea;
 Who by his strength setteth fast the mountains,
 Being girded about with might;
 Who stilleth the roaring of the seas,
 The roaring of their waves, And the tumult of the peoples.
 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are in awe at thy tokens:
 Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.
 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,
 Thou greatly enrichest it;
 The river of God is full of water:
 Thou providest them grain, when thou hast so prepared the earth,—
 Drenching her furrows, settling her ridges,
 Softening her with showers, Blessing her growths.
 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness;
 The pathways of thy feet drop richness.
 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness;
 And the hills are girded with joy.

The pastures are clothed with flocks; The valleys also are robed with grain;
 They shout for joy, they also sing.
 BLESSED BE THE LORD, OUR GOD,
 FROM EVERLASTING AND TO EVERLASTING.
 AMEN, AND AMEN.

The Whole Creation Summoned to Praise

Ps.
148

PRAISE ye the Lord: Praise the Lord from the heavens;
 Praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels: Praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon: Praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, And ye waters above the heavens

Let them praise the name of the Lord;

For he commanded, and they were created:

He established them for ever and ever;

He made them a law which they may not transgress.

Praise the Lord from the earth, —

Ye dragons and all deeps:

Fire and hail, snow and vapor; Stormy wind fulfilling his word:

Mountains and all hills; Fruitful trees and all cedars:

Wild beasts and all cattle; Creeping things and winged birds:

Kings of the earth and all peoples;

Princes and all judges of the earth:

Both young men and maidens; Old men and children:

Let them praise the name of the Lord:

For his name alone is exalted;

His glory is above earth and heaven.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

Ps.
149

Praise ye the Lord. Sing unto the Lord a new song,

And his praise in the assembly of the saints.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people:

He will beautify the meek with salvation.

Let the saints exult in glory:

Let the high praises of God be in their mouth.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

Ps.
150 Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary:

Praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts:

Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with trumpet sound:

Praise him with psaltery and harp.

Praise him with timbrel and dance:

Praise him with stringed instruments and pipe.

Praise him with loud cymbals:

Praise him with high sounding cymbals.

LET EVERYTHING THAT HATH BREATH PRAISE THE LORD.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

Eleventh Reading

God's Eternity and Man's Mortality

I

Ps.
90 LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth,

Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,

Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Thou turnest man again to dust,

And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight

Are but as yesterday when it is past,

And as a watch in the night.

Thou carriest them away as with a flood, They are as a sleep:

In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;

In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten,

Or even by reason of strength fourscore years;

Yet is their pride but labor and sorrow;

For it is soon gone, and we fly away.

We bring our years to an end as a tale that is told.

So teach us to number our days,

That we may get us an heart of wisdom.

Return, O Lord; how long?

And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

O satisfy us in the morning with thy kindness,

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants,

And thy glory upon their children.

And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us;

And establish thou the work of our hands upon us;

Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

II

*Ps.
102,
39* Hear my prayer, O Lord, And let my cry come unto thee.

Hide not thy face from me in the day of my distress:

Incline thine ear unto me;

When I call answer me speedily.

Lord, make me to know mine end,

And the measure of my days, what it is;

Let me know how frail I am.

My days are like a shadow that declineth;

And I am withered like grass.

But thou, O Lord, dost abide for ever;

Thy years are throughout all generations.

Of old didst thou lay the foundation of the earth;

And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure;

Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment;

As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

But thou art the same, And thy years shall have no end.

Behold, thou hast made my days as handbreadths;

And my lifetime is as nothing before thee.

Surely man, at his best estate, is but a breath:

Surely he goeth about in a vain show;

He disquieteth himself in vain:

He heareth up, and knoweth not who shall gather.

And now, Lord, what wait I for? My hope is in thee.

O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days.

Remove thy stroke away from me:

By the blow of thy hand, I must perish.

When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin,

Thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth.

Surely man is but a breath.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry:

Hold not thy peace at my tears:

Consider and answer me, O Lord my God:

Lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death:

For I am but a guest with thee, A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me, that I may recover strength,

Before I go hence, and be no more.

God's Glory and Man's Dignity

<sup>Ps.
8</sup> O LORD, our Lord, How excellent is thy name in all the earth,
Who hast set thy glory upon the heavens!
Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength,
Because of thine adversaries,

That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,

The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him;

And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than divine,

And crownest him with glory and honor.

Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;

Thou hast put all things under his feet,—

All sheep and oxen,

Yea, and the beasts of the field,

The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,

Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O LORD, OUR LORD,

HOW EXCELLENT IS THY NAME IN ALL THE EARTH!

<sup>Ps.
36</sup> Thy lovingkindness, O Lord, is in the heavens;

Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the skies.

Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God;

Thy judgments are a great deep:

O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God!

And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.

They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house;

And thou wilt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

For with thee is the fountain of life:

In thy light do we see light.

O CONTINUE THY LOVINGKINDNESS UNTO THEM THAT KNOW THEE,

AND THY RIGHTEOUSNESS TO THE UPRIGHT IN HEART.

*Praise to God for His Lovingkindness*Ps.
103

BLESS the Lord, O my soul;
 And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
 Bless the Lord, O my soul, And forget not all his benefits:
 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
 Who healeth all thy diseases;
 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction;
 Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;
 Who satisfieth thy soul with good things,
 So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

The Lord executeth righteous acts,
 And judgments for all that are oppressed.
 He made known his ways unto Moses,
 His doings unto the children of Israel.
 The Lord is full of compassion and gracious,
 Slow to anger, and plenteous in lovingkindness.
 He will not always chide; Neither will he keep his anger for ever.
 He hath not dealt with us after our sins,
 Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.
 For as the heaven is high above the earth,
 So great is his lovingkindness toward them that fear him.
 As far as the east is from the west,
 So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
 Like as a father pitieth his children,
 So the Lord pitieth them that fear him.
 For he knoweth our frame;
 He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass;
 As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone;
 And the place thereof shall know it no more.
 But the lovingkindness of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
 And his righteousness unto children's children;
 To such as keep his covenant,
 And to those that remember his precepts to do them.
 The Lord hath established his throne in the heavens;
 And his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless the Lord, ye his angels,
That are mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,
Hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless the Lord, all ye his hosts,
Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

BLESS THE LORD, ALL YE HIS WORKS,
IN ALL PLACES OF HIS DOMINION: BLESS THE LORD, O MY SOUL.

Praise for Manifest Deliverance

Ps.
107

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord; for he is good;
For his kindness endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,

Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
And gathered out of the lands,

From the east and from the west, From the north and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way;
They found no city of habitation.

Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses.

He led them also by a straight way,

That they might go to a city of habitation.

O THAT MEN WOULD PRAISE THE LORD FOR HIS KINDNESS,
AND FOR HIS WONDERFUL WORKS TO THE CHILDREN OF MEN!

For he satisfieth the longing soul,

And the hungry soul he filleth with good.

Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron,

Because they rebelled against the words of God,

And contemned the counsel of the Most High,—

Therefore he brought down their heart with labor;

They fell down, and there was none to help.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,

And he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,

And brake their bonds in sunder.

O THAT MEN WOULD PRAISE THE LORD FOR HIS KINDNESS,
AND FOR HIS WONDERFUL WORKS TO THE CHILDREN OF MEN!

For he hath broken the gates of brass,
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
Their soul abhorreth all manner of food;
And they draw near unto the gates of death.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he saveth them out of their distresses.

He sendeth his word, and healeth them,
And delivereth them from their destructions.

O THAT MEN WOULD PRAISE THE LORD FOR HIS KINDNESS,
AND FOR HIS WONDERFUL WORKS TO THE CHILDREN OF MEN!

And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with singing.

They that go down to the sea in ships, That do business in great waters;
These see the works of the Lord, And his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the depths:
Their soul melteth away because of trouble;

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm, So that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad because they are quiet;

So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

O THAT MEN WOULD PRAISE THE LORD FOR HIS KINDNESS,
AND FOR HIS WONDERFUL WORKS TO THE CHILDREN OF MEN!

Fearlessness and Security of Him who Trusts God

I

Ps. 27 THE Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?
Though an host should encamp against me, My heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me, Even then will I be confident.
One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after;
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,
To gaze upon the beauty of the Lord, And to inquire in his temple.

For in the day of trouble he doth keep me safely in his covert,
 In the shelter of his tabernacle doth he hide me;
 He lifteth me up upon a rock.

And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;
 I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, when I call with my voice:

Be gracious unto me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face;

My heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Hide not thy face from me; in anger turn not thy servant away.

Thou hast been my help: cast me not off,

Neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

Though father and mother may forsake, Still the Lord will take me up

Teach me thy way, O Lord; And lead me in a plain path:

For I walk in the midst of danger:

Leave not my soul in the power of the enemy.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

Wait for the Lord: Be strong, and let thy heart take courage;

Yea, wait thou for the Lord.

II

Ps. He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High
91 Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, —

Thou art my refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,

And from the deadly pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his pinions,

And under his wings shalt thou take refuge:

His truth is a shield and a buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,

Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side,

And ten thousand at thy right hand;

But it shall not come nigh thee.

Because thou hast said, The Lord is my refuge;

And hast made the Most High thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee,

Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:

The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:

I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble:

I will deliver him, and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him, And show him my salvation.

God the Refuge of His People

I

Is.
25,
26

O LORD, thou art my God: I will exalt thee;

I will praise thee, for thou hast done wonderful things,

Even counsels of old in faithfulness and truth.

For thou hast been a stronghold for the poor,

A stronghold to the needy in his distress,

A refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat,

When the blast of the terrible one is as a storm against the wall.

The way of the just hast thou made plain;

Thou that art upright dost direct the path of the just.

Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee.

Thy name and thy praise are the desire of our soul.

With my soul have I desired thee;

Yea, with my spirit within me do I seek thee earnestly.

For when thy judgments are in the earth,

The inhabitants of the earth learn righteousness.

Thou hast increased the nation, O Lord,

Thou hast increased the nation.

Thou shalt be the glory of thy people,

For thou hast enlarged the borders of the land.

Thou, O Lord, wilt ordain peace for us:

For thou hast wrought all our works for us:

And the Lord, our God, will wipe away tears from off all faces,

And the reproach of his people from off all the earth.

And in that day it shall be said among us,—

Lo, THIS IS OUR GOD;

WE HAVE WAITED FOR HIM, AND HE WILL SAVE US.

THIS IS THE LORD; WE HAVE WAITED FOR HIM;

WE WILL BE GLAD AND REJOICE IN HIS SALVATION.

In that day shall this song be sung in our land,—

WE HAVE A STRONG CITY.

SALVATION WILL HE APPOINT FOR WALLS AND BULWARKS.

OPEN YE THE GATES, OPEN YE THE GATES,

THAT THE RIGHTEOUS NATION THAT KEEPETH FAITH MAY ENTER IN.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee,

Because he trusteth in thee.

Trust ye in the Lord for ever;

For in the Lord, even our God, is everlasting strength.

II

Ps. God is our refuge and strength,

46

A very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change,

And though the mountains be moved into the heart of the seas;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,

Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

THE LORD OF HOSTS IS WITH US;

THE GOD OF JACOB IS OUR REFUGE.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,

The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:

God will help her, and that right early.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:

He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

THE LORD OF HOSTS IS WITH US;

THE GOD OF JACOB IS OUR REFUGE.

Come, behold the works of the Lord,

What desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth,

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;

He burneth the chariots in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God:

I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

THE LORD OF HOSTS IS WITH US;

THE GOD OF JACOB IS OUR REFUGE.

*A Testimony to the Love and Care of God*Ps.
34,
66I WILL bless the Lord at all times:

His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord:

The meek shall hear and be glad.

O magnify the Lord with me,

And let us exalt his name together.

I sought the Lord, and he answered me, And delivered me from all my fears.

This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him,

And saved him out of all his troubles.

O look unto him, and be radiant; And your faces shall not be abashed.

The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him,

And delivereth them.

O taste and see that the Lord is good:

Blessed is the man that taketh refuge in him.

O fear the Lord, ye his saints;

For there is no want to them that fear him.

The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger;

But they that seek the Lord want not any good thing.

Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord,—

What man is he that desireth life, And loveth days, that he may see good?

Keep thy tongue from evil, And thy lips from speaking guile;

Depart from evil, and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it.

The eyes of the Lord are toward the righteous,

And his ears are open unto their cry.

The Lord is nigh unto the broken in heart,

And saveth them that are crushed in spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous;

But the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants;

And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

Come, and hear, all ye that fear God,

And I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

I cried unto him with my mouth, And he was extolled with my tongue.

If I regard iniquity in my heart, The Lord will not hear:

But verily God hath heard; He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

BLESSED BE GOD, WHO HATH NOT TURNED AWAY MY PRAYER,

NOR HIS KINDNESS FROM ME.

Childlike Trust in God

Ps.
67,
123,
131 HEAR my cry, O God; Attend unto my prayer.
From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed:

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

For thou hast been a refuge for me, A strong tower from the enemy.

I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever:

I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings.

Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes, O thou that sittest in the heavens.

Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master,

As the eyes of a maid unto the hand of her mistress;

So my eyes look unto the Lord my God,

Until he have mercy upon me.

Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty;

Neither do I exercise myself in great matters,

Or in things too wonderful for me.

Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul;

Like a weaned child with his mother,

Like a weaned child is my soul within me.

Ps.
62 Only for God wait thou in silence, O my soul:

From him cometh my salvation.

He only is my rock and my salvation:

He is my high tower; I shall not be greatly moved.

Only for God wait thou in silence, O my soul;

For my expectation is from him.

He only is my rock and my salvation:

He is my high tower; I shall not be moved.

With God is my salvation and my glory;

The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

Trust in him at all times, ye people;

Pour out your heart before him:

God is a refuge for us.

Ps.
130 Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.

Lord, hear my voice:

Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with thee, That thou mayest be feared.

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait,
 And in his word do I hope.
 My soul waiteth for the Lord
 More than watchmen wait for the morning;
 Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
 O Israel, hope in the Lord; For with the Lord there is mercy,
 And with him is plenteous redemption.
 And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Thirsting for God

Ps.
42,

AS the hart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God.

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:

When shall I come and appear before God?

My tears have been my food day and night,

While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, —

How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,

With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?

And why art thou disquieted within me?

HOPE THOU IN GOD; FOR I SHALL YET PRAISE HIM

FOR THE HELP OF HIS COUNTENANCE.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me.

Deep calleth unto deep in the sound of thy waterfloods:

All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Yet the Lord will command his lovingkindness in the daytime;

And in the night his song shall be with me,

Even a prayer unto the God of my life.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?

And why art thou disquieted within me?

HOPE THOU IN GOD; FOR I SHALL YET PRAISE HIM,

WHO IS THE HELP OF MY COUNTENANCE, AND MY GOD.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause;

O deliver me, For thou art the God of my strength.

O send out thy light and thy truth; let them lead me:

Let them bring me unto thy holy hill,

And to thy tabernacles.

Then will I go unto the altar of God,

Unto God my exceeding joy;

And upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?

And why art thou disquieted within me?

HOPE THOU IN GOD; FOR I SHALL YET PRAISE HIM,

WHO IS THE HELP OF MY COUNTENANCE, AND MY GOD.

Prayer for Protection, Guidance and Pardon

UNTO thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
 O my God, in thee have I trusted, Let me not be put to shame:
 Show me thy ways, O Lord; Teach me thy paths.
 Guide me in thy truth, and teach me;
 For thou art the God of my salvation;
 For thee do I wait all the day.
 Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindness;
 For they have been ever of old.
 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions:
 According to thy lovingkindness remember thou me,
 For thy goodness' sake, O Lord.
 Good and upright is the Lord:
 Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.
 The meek will he guide in justice;
 And the meek will he teach his way.
 All the paths of the Lord are kindness and truth
 Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
 For thy name's sake, O Lord,
 Pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.
 What man is he that feareth the Lord?
 Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.
 His soul shall dwell at ease; And his seed shall inherit the land.
 The friendship of the Lord is with them that fear him;
 And he will show them his covenant.
 Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord;
 For he will pluck my feet out of the net.
 Consider mine affliction and my travail; And forgive all my sins.
 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name's sake:
 In thy righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.
 O keep my soul, and deliver me:
 Let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in thee.
 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, For I wait for thee.
 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning;
 For in thee do I trust:
 Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk;
 For I lift up my soul unto thee.
 Teach me to do thy will; For thou art my God:
 Let thy good Spirit lead me in a plain path.

The Sacrifice of Repentance

<sup>Ps.
51</sup> HAVE mercy upon me, O God,
According to thy lovingkindness:

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies
Blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions;
And my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done that which is evil in thy sight.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts;
In the hidden part thou wilt make me to know wisdom.

Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
And uphold me with a willing spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee.

O Lord, open thou my lips;

And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else would I give it:

Thou hast no pleasure in burnt-offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

The Peace of Forgiveness

^{Is.}
⁵⁷ THUS saith the high and lofty One, that inhabiteth eternity,
 Whose name is Holy:
 I dwell in the high and holy place,
 With him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit,
 To revive the spirit of the humble, And to revive the heart of the contrite
 I have seen his ways, and will heal him:
 I will lead him also, and will recompense him with comfort.
 Peace, peace to him that is far off and to him that is near,
 And I will heal him, saith the Lord.
 But the wicked are like the troubled sea,
 For it cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt.
 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

^{Ps.}
³² Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is pardoned.
 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity,
 And in whose spirit there is no guile.
 As long as I kept silent my bones wasted away
 Through my groaning all the day long:
 For day and night thy hand lay heavy upon me;
 My moisture was dried as in the heat of summer.

Then to thee I laid bare my sin, my guilt I did not conceal;
 I said, I will confess my sin unto the Lord:
 And thou — thou didst lift off the weight of my guilt.
 So let every good man pray unto thee when thou mayest be found:
 Then, in the rush of great waters, he shall not be overtaken.
 Thou art my refuge, thou wilt guard me from evil,
 Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

Harken unto me, saith the Lord, and I will instruct thee,
 And show thee the way thou must go.
 I will turn mine eye upon thee to guide thee.
 Be not without understanding like the horse or the mule;
 Which must be curbed with bit and bridle.
 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
 But he that trusteth in the Lord, —
 With lovingkindness will he compass him about.
 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous;
 And shout for joy, all ye upright in heart.

*A Cry in Distress unto God*Ps.
55,

GIVE ear to my prayer, O God;
And hide not thyself from my supplication.

Attend unto me, and answer me:

I am restless in my complaint, and moan,

Because of the voice of the enemy,

Because of the oppression of the wicked;

For they cast iniquity upon me,

And in anger they persecute me.

My heart is sore pained within me:

And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me,

And horror hath overwhelmed me.

For innumerable evils have compassed me about;

And my heart hath failed me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me:

Make haste to help me, O Lord.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:

Let such as love thy salvation say continually,

The Lord be magnified.

As for me, I am poor and needy;

Yet the Lord thinketh upon me:

Thou art my help and my deliverer;

Make no tarrying, O my God.

Ps.
69

Save me, O God; For the waters are come in unto my soul;

I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head:

They that would cut me off, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty.

For the zeal of thy house hath eaten me up;

And the reproaches of them that reproach thee are fallen upon me.

Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness:

And I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;

And for comforters, but I found none.

They gave me also gall for my food;

And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time:

O God, in the abundance of thy lovingkindness,

Answer me in the truth of thy salvation.

Let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.
 And I will praise the name of God with a song,
 And will magnify him with thanksgiving.
 The lowly, when they see it, shall be glad.
 Ye that seek after God, let your heart revive.

<sup>Ps.
16</sup> I have set the Lord always before me:
 Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth:
 My flesh also shall dwell in safety.
 For thou wilt not leave my soul to Sheol;
 Neither wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see corruption.
 Thou wilt show me the path of life:
 In thy presence is fulness of joy;
 In thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

A Prayer in Distress and Praise for Deliverance

 And in the night season, but find no rest.
 And yet thou art holy, O thou that art enthroned on the praises of Israel.
 In thee did our fathers trust: They trusted, and thou didst deliver them.
 Unto thee they cried and were delivered:
 They trusted in thee, and were not put to shame.
 But I am a reproach of men, and despised of the people.
 All they that see me laugh me to scorn:
 They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
 Commit thyself unto the Lord; let Him deliver him:
 Let Him rescue him, seeing He delighteth in him.
 Be not far from me, O Lord; for trouble is near; For there is none to help.
 A company of evil-doers have inclosed me;
 They pierced my hands and my feet.
 They look and stare upon me.
 They part my garments among them,
 And upon my vesture do they cast lots.
 But thou, O Lord, be not thou far off:
 O thou my succor, haste thee to help me.

Thou hast answered me.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren :

In the midst of the assembly will I praise thee.

Ye that fear the Lord, praise him;

All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him;

And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;

Neither hath he hid his face from him;

But when he cried unto him, he heard.

Of thee cometh my praise in the great congregation:

I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied;

They shall praise the Lord that seek after him:

Let your heart live for ever.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto the Lord;

And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

For the kingdom is the Lord's;

And he is the ruler over the nations.

A seed shall serve him;

And shall tell of the Lord unto the next generation.

They shall come and shall declare his righteousness

Unto a people yet to be born, that he hath done it.

A Sacrifice of Praise

Ps.
40

I WAITED patiently for the Lord;

And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay;

And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:

Many shall see it, and fear,

And shall trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust,

And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Many, O Lord my God, are the wonderful works which thou hast done,

And thy thoughts which are to us-ward:

They cannot be set in order unto thee;

If I would declare and speak of them,

They are more than can be numbered.

The Great High Priest

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling,
 Consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession;
 Whom we behold, because of the suffering of death,
 Crowned with glory and honor.
 For it became Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things,
 in bringing many sons unto glory,
 To make the leader of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
 For he needed to be made like his brethren in all things,
 That he might become a merciful and faithful high priest
 in the things pertaining unto God.
 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted,
 He is able to succor them that are tempted.
 Who in the days of his flesh offered up prayers and supplications,
 With strong crying and tears, unto him that was able to save him from death;
 And because of his godly fear he was heard.
 Though he was a Son, yet he learned obedience by the things which he suffered:
 And being made perfect, he became unto all who obey him
 the author of eternal salvation.
 For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, undefiled,
 Separated from sinners and made higher than the heavens;
 Who offered himself through an eternal Spirit, faultless, unto God,
 To cleanse our conscience from dead works to serve the living God.
 As we have then a great high priest who hath passed through the heavens,
 Jesus the Son of God,
 Let us hold fast our confession.
 For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities,
 But one who hath been tempted in all points like as we are,
 yet without sin.
 Let us then draw near with confidence to the throne of grace,
 That we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need;
 For he is able to save to the uttermost those that draw near to God through him,
 Seeing that he ever liveth to make intercession for them.
 Because he abideth for ever, he hath his priesthood unchangeable:
 Jesus Christ the same, yesterday, to-day and for ever.

Let us then not be carried away by doctrines diverse and strange;

For it is good to have the heart established by grace.

Through him let us offer continually to God a sacrifice of praise,

That is the fruits of our lips confessing his name.

And forget not beneficence and contributions,

For with sacrifices like these God is well pleased.

NOW THE GOD OF PEACE, WHO BROUGHT AGAIN FROM THE DEAD

OUR LORD JESUS, THE GREAT SHEPHERD OF THE SHEEP,

MAKE US PERFECT IN EVERY GOOD WORK TO DO HIS WILL,

WORKING IN US THAT WHICH IS WELL-PLEASING IN HIS SIGHT,

THROUGH JESUS CHRIST;

TO WHOM BE THE GLORY FOR EVER AND EVER. AMEN.

The Resurrection

15</sup>

NOW is Christ risen from the dead,

And become the firstfruits of them that sleep.

For as in Adam all die, Even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

As we have borne the image of the earthy,

We shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

For there are celestial bodies and bodies terrestrial:

But the glory of the celestial is one,

And the glory of the terrestrial is another.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon,

and another glory of the stars;

For one star differeth from another star in glory.

So also is the resurrection of the dead.

It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory:

It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body.

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual,

But that which is natural, then that which is spiritual.

The first man is of the earth, earthy:

The second man is of heaven.

As is the earthy, such are they also which are earthy:

And as is the heavenly, such are they also which are heavenly.

Now flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God,

Neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, a mystery!

We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption,

And this mortal must put on immortality.

But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption,

And this mortal shall have put on immortality,

Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written,

Death is swallowed up in victory.

O death, where is thy sting?

O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin, And the strength of sin is the law:

But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory

Through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let us be stedfast, unmoveable,

Always abounding in the work of the Lord,

Forasmuch as we know that our labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Seventy-fourth Reading

Risen with Christ

IF then ye were raised with Christ,

Seek the things that are above,

Where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God.

Set your mind on the things that are above,

Not on the things that are upon the earth.

For we died and our life is hid with Christ in God.

That like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father,

So we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death

We shall be united with him also in the likeness of his resurrection.

If we died with Christ,

We believe that we shall also live with him;

For we know that as Christ was raised from the dead,

He dies no more; death has no more dominion over him.

For the death that he died, he died unto sin once,

But the life that he liveth he liveth unto God.

Even so let us reckon ourselves to be dead unto sin,

But alive unto God in Christ Jesus.

But if Christ live in us, The body is dead because of sin,

But the spirit is life because of righteousness.

And if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in us,
 He who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead
 Shall quicken also our mortal bodies through his Spirit dwelling in us.
 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh;
 For if we live after the flesh we must die:

But if by the Spirit we put to death the doings of the body, we shall live.

Let not sin, then, reign in our mortal body,
 That we should obey the lusts thereof;

Neither present our members unto sin as instruments of unrighteousness;
 But present ourselves unto God as alive from the dead,
 And our members unto God as instruments of righteousness.

For sin shall not have dominion over us:

But now being set free from sin and become bond-servants of God,
 We have our fruit unto sanctification, and, as the end, eternal life.

For the wages of sin is death;

BUT THE FREE GIFT OF GOD IS ETERNAL LIFE
 IN JESUS CHRIST, OUR LORD.

Seventy-fifth Reading

The Glory which shall be Revealed

I Sons and Heirs of God

Rom. 8. AS many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.
 For we received not the spirit of bondage, again to fear;

But we received the spirit of sonship, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God:

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ;

If so be that we suffer with him, that with him also we may be glorified.

For we reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

And we know that to them that love God all things work together for good.

If God is for us, who is against us?

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all,

How shall he not also with him freely give us all things?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution,

Or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors

Through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life,
 Nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers,
 Nor things present, nor things to come,
 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature,
 Shall be able to separate us from the love of God,
 Which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

II The Living Hope

Pet. 1 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
 Who, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
 Hath, in his great mercy, begotten us anew into a living hope,—
 Unto an inheritance imperishable, undefiled,
 That fadeth not away, reserved for us in heaven, —
 Wherein we greatly rejoice, though now for a little while,
 If need be, put to grief in manifold trials,
 That the proof of our faith, —
 More precious than the perishable gold that is proved by the fire, —
 May be found unto praise and glory and honor
 At the revelation of Jesus Christ;
 Whom not having seen we love;
 On whom, though now we see him not, we believe;
 Rejoicing greatly, with joy unspeakable and full of glory;
 Receiving the end of our faith, even the salvation of our souls.
 NOW UNTO THE GOD OF ALL GRACE,
 WHO HATH CALLED US UNTO HIS ETERNAL GLORY IN CHRIST,
 BE THE DOMINION FOR EVER AND EVER. AMEN.

III The Power of the Endless Life

Cor. 4, 5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved,
 We have a building from God,
 A house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
 Wherefore we faint not;
 For though our outer man decays, Day by day our inner man is renewed.
 For our light affliction, which is for the moment,
 Worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;
 While we look not at the things which are seen,
 But at the things which are not seen;
 For the things which are seen are temporal,
 But the things which are not seen are eternal.
 AND NOW UNTO THE KING ETERNAL,
 IMMORTAL, INVISIBLE, THE ONLY WISE GOD,
 BE HONOR AND GLORY FOR EVER AND EVER. AMEN.

IV Blessed are the Dead

Rev. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth:
 Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors,
 And their works do follow them.
 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more;
 Neither shall the sun beat upon them, nor any heat:
 For the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne
 Shall be their Shepherd, And guide them to fountains of living water.
 And God himself shall be with them,
 And his servants shall serve him,
 And they shall see his face,
 And his name shall be in their foreheads;
 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
 And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying;
 Neither shall there be any more pain;
 For the first things are passed away.
 And there shall be night no more;
 And they need no light of lamp, neither light of the sun;
 For the Lord God shall be their light:
 And they shall reign for ever and ever.
 AMEN. BLESSING AND GLORY AND WISDOM,
 AND THANKSGIVING AND HONOR AND POWER AND MIGHT,
 BE UNTO OUR GOD FOR EVER AND EVER. AMEN.

Beatitudes with Responses

I

BLESSED are they that dwell in thy house:
 They will be still praising thee.
 We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
 The holy place of thy temple.
 Blessed are they that are upright in the way,
 Who walk in the law of the Lord.
 Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes;
 And I shall keep it unto the end.
 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
 That seek him with the whole heart.
 With my whole heart have I sought thee, O Lord:
 Let me not wander from thy commandments.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in the Lord.

Strengthen thou me, O Lord, according to thy word.

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust.

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: Let me never be ashamed.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered.

Let thy mercies also come unto me, O Lord,

Even thy salvation according to thy word.

Blessed is he that considereth the weak:

The Lord will deliver him in the day of evil.

He that hath pity on the poor, happy is he.

Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord,

And teachest out of thy law.

Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth:

Therefore will we not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

Blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

All that God hath spoken will we hear and do.

II

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant us the contrite spirit of thy kingdom.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant us thy consolation.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and beautify us with salvation.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness:

for they shall be filled.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and feed us with the bread of life.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Lord, have mercy upon us, according to thy word.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant us the vision of the undefiled.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the sons of God.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant that we may be blameless and harmless, the children of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake:
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant that in our patience we may win our souls.

Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you,
And say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant that nothing may separate us from the love of Christ.

Te Deum Laudamus

WE praise thee, O God;
 We acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
 All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
 To thee all angels cry aloud;
 The heavens, and all the powers therein;
 To thee cherubim and seraphim continually do cry, —
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
 Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.
 The glorious company of the apostles praise thee.
 The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise thee.
 The noble army of martyrs praise thee.
 The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee;
 The Father of an infinite majesty;
 Thine adorable, true and only Son;
 Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
 Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ;
 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
 When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
 Thou didst humble thyself to be born of a virgin.
 When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death
 Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
 Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
 We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
 We therefore pray thee, help thy servants,
 Whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
 Make them to be numbered with thy saints, in glory everlasting.
 O Lord, save thy people, and bless thine heritage.
 Govern them, and lift them up for ever.
 Day by day we magnify thee;
 And we worship thy name ever, world without end.
 Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
 O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
 O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us, as our trust is in thee.
 O Lord, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

1. Confession of God's Holiness

^{ev.}
^{4.}
^{5.}
^{7.} Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts:
The whole earth is full of his glory.
Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God, the Almighty,
Who was and who is and who is to come.
Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God,
To receive the glory and the honor and the power:
For thou didst create all things,
And because of thy will they were, and were created.
Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty;
Righteous and true are thy ways, thou King of the ages.
Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name?
For thou only art holy;
For all the nations shall come and worship before thee;
For thy righteous acts have been made manifest.
Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving,
And honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. AMEN.

2. Confession of God's Wisdom and Knowledge

^{am.}
¹ O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
For who hath known the mind of the Lord?
Or who hath been his counsellor?
Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?
For of him and through him and unto him are all things.
To him be the glory for ever and ever. AMEN.

3. Confession of God's Glory and Power

^{ev.}
⁷ Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain
To receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might,
And honor, and glory, and blessing.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

For the kingdom of the world is become
The kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ:
And he shall reign for ever and ever.
Unto him that sitteth upon the throne and to the Lamb
Be the blessing and the honor and the glory,
And the dominion for ever and ever. AMEN.

II

Rev.
11,
19 We give thee thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty,
Who art and who wast, and who art to come;
For thou hast taken thy great power, and dost reign.
Alleluia; Salvation and glory and power belong to our God:
For true and righteous are his judgments altogether.
Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.
Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad,
And let us give the glory unto him. AMEN.

III

1 Tim.
6 Now unto the blessed and only Potentate,
The King of kings, and Lord of lords;
Who only hath immortality,
Dwelling in light unapproachable,
Whom no man hath seen nor can see:
To him be honor and power everlasting. AMEN.

4. Confession of the Law of the Ten Words

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image;
 thou shalt not bow down to it nor serve it.
Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
Honor thy father and thy mother.
Thou shalt not kill.
Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal.
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbor's.
Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart,
 and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

5. Confession of the Royal Law

Minister. Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord:
And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.
This is the first and great commandment.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another;
Even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.
By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples,
If ye have love one to another.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and fill our hearts with the love of Christ.

Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us.
But whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother in need,
and shutteth up his compassion from him,
How dwelleth the love of God in him?
Beloved, let us not love in word, or with the tongue, but in deed and truth.
Lord, have mercy upon us, and teach us to love in deed and in truth.

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God;
And he that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love.
If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar:
For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen.
And this commandment have we from him,
That he who loveth God love his brother also.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and fill our hearts with love of the brethren.

Owe no man anything, save to love one another:
For he that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the law. For this, —
Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill,
Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet,
And if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, —
Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.
Love worketh no ill to his neighbor:
Love therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and grant us grace to fulfil the law of Christ.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

6. Confession of Righteousness

Ps.
1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners, Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers:
But his delight is in the law of the Lord;
And on his law doth he meditate day and night.
And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also doth not wither;
And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The wicked are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous;
But the way of the wicked shall perish.

7. Confession of True Blessedness

Matt.
5 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.
Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake:
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you,
And say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven:
For so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

8. Confession of Sin

I

Minister. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

In Unison. HAVE MERCY UPON ME, O GOD, ACCORDING TO THY LOVING-KINDNESS.

ACCORDING TO THE MULTITUDE OF THY TENDER MERCIES BLOT OUT MY TRANSGRESSIONS.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

WASH ME THOROUGHLY FROM MY INIQUITY,
AND CLEANSE ME FROM MY SIN.
FOR I ACKNOWLEDGE MY TRANSGRESSIONS;
AND MY SIN IS EVER BEFORE ME.
CREATE IN ME A CLEAN HEART, O GOD;
AND RENEW A RIGHT SPIRIT WITHIN ME.
CAST ME NOT AWAY FROM THY PRESENCE;
AND TAKE NOT THY HOLY SPIRIT FROM ME.

O Lord, open thou my lips;

And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

II

Minister. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found;

Call ye upon him while he is near:

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts;

And let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him;

And to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Lord, be merciful unto us, for we have sinned against thee.

O Lord, we have sinned and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from thy precepts and from thy judgments.

O Lord, take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously.

O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of face, as it is this day; because we have trespassed against thee.

O Lord, make clean our hearts within us,

And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; though we have rebelled against him.

O Lord, show thy mercy upon us: and grant us thy salvation.

Thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity,
Whose name is Holy:

I dwell in the high and holy place,

With him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit,

To revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

9. General Confession of Sin

Minister. Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save;
nor his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: but our iniquities have separated between us and our God, and our sins have hid his face from us.
We have transgressed and have rebelled.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

Let us search and try our ways, and turn again unto the Lord.
Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

Unison. O LORD OUR GOD, OTHER LORDS HAVE HAD DOMINION OVER US;
BUT WE COME UNTO THEE; FOR THOU ART OUR GOD.
OUR TRANSGRESSIONS ARE MULTIPLIED BEFORE THEE,
AND OUR SINS TESTIFY AGAINST US:
FOR OUR TRANSGRESSIONS ARE WITH US,
AND AS FOR OUR INIQUITIES, WE KNOW THEM, —
IN TRANSGRESSING AND DENYING THE LORD,
AND TURNING AWAY FROM FOLLOWING OUR GOD,
IN SPEAKING OPPRESSION AND REVOLT,
CONCEIVING AND UTTERING FROM THE HEART WORDS OF FALSEHOOD:
AND JUSTICE IS TURNED AWAY BACKWARD,
AND RIGHTEOUSNESS STANDETH AFAR OFF.
HELP US, O GOD OF OUR SALVATION, FOR THE GLORY OF THY NAME;
AND DELIVER US, AND PURGE AWAY OUR SINS FOR THY NAME'S SAKE.

Thus saith the Lord, If my people shall humble themselves,
And pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways;
Then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin.

10. Confession of God's Redeeming Love

*Ps.
130*

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.
Lord, hear my voice:
Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?
But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared.
I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait,
And in his word do I hope.
My soul waiteth for the Lord
More than watchmen wait for the morning;
Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
O Israel, hope in the Lord; For with the Lord there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.
And he will redeem Israel from all iniquities.

12. Confession of Trust

(For 11 and 12 see page 473)

UNISON CONFESSIONS

13. Confession of Trust in the Heavenly Father

Matt. 6. Minister. Remember the words of our Lord Jesus how he said:
Consider the birds of the air:
They sow not, neither do they reap nor gather into barns;
Yet your heavenly Father feedeth them.
Are ye not of more value than they?
Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow:
They toil not, neither do they spin;
Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field,
Which to-day is and to-morrow is cast into the oven,
Shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Unison. LET US NOT THEREFORE BE ANXIOUS, SAYING,
WHAT SHALL WE EAT? OR, WHAT SHALL WE DRINK?
OR, WHEREWITHAL SHALL WE BE CLOTHED?
FOR OUR HEAVENLY FATHER KNOWETH THAT WE HAVE NEED OF THESE THINGS.

BUT LET US SEEK FIRST HIS KINGDOM AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS,
AND ALL THESE THINGS SHALL BE ADDED UNTO US.

14. A Confession: The Fulness of God

Eph. 3. For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father,
From whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,
That according to the riches of his grace he would grant
That we may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner man;

That Christ may dwell in our hearts through faith;
So that, being rooted and grounded in love,
We may be enabled to comprehend, with all the saints,
What is the breadth and length and height and depth,
And to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge,
That we may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

Now unto him who is able to do exceeding abundantly,
Above all that we can ask or think,
According to the power whereby he worketh in us,
Unto him, in Christ Jesus, be the glory in the Church
To all generations for ever and ever. AMEN.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

15. Confession of Sonship

^{1 John}
³ Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us,
That we should be called children of God; and such we are.
Beloved, we are children of God now,
And what we shall be is not yet made manifest;
But when he shall be manifested, we know that we shall be like him;
For we shall see him even as he is.
And let every one that hath this hope set on him
Purify himself, even as he is pure.

16. Confession of Consecration

^{Heb.}
¹⁰ Having therefore, brethren, a great High Priest over the household of God,
And having boldness to enter into the Holy Place,
Through the new and living way which he dedicated for us;
Let us draw near with a true heart in fulness of faith,
Having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience,
Holding fast and unwavering the confession of our hope:
And let us consider one another to incite unto love and good works;
Not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is,
But exhorting and cheering one another.

17. Confession of Pure Religion and Undeiled

^{Heb.}
¹³ Let brotherly love continue.
Forget not to be hospitable,
For thereby some have entertained angels unawares.
Remember those in bonds, as bound with them;
Those who are maltreated, as being ourselves also in the body:
And forget not beneficence and contributions;
For with sacrifices like these God is well-pleased.
Let marriage be honored among all, and the bed undeiled.
Let us be free from the love of money,
Content with such things as we have:
For he hath said,
Never will I leave thee, never will I forsake thee
So that with good courage we may say,
The Lord is my helper, I will not fear.
What shall man do unto me?

UNISON CONFESSIONS

18. A Confession of Love, Joy, Peace

Col. 3 Let us put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved,
A heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, longsuffering;
Forbearing one another, and forgiving each other,
If any man have a complaint against any;
Even as the Lord forgave us, so let us forgive:
And over and above all these things
Put on love which is the bond of perfectness.
And let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts,
For to this also we were called in one body:
And let us show ourselves thankful:
And let the word of Christ dwell in us richly, in all wisdom:
And whatsoever we do, in word or in deed,
Let us do all in the name of the Lord Jesus,
Giving thanks to God the Father through him.
And may the Lord of peace himself give us peace,
At all times, in all ways. The Lord be with us all.

23. A Scriptural Confession of Faith

To us there is:

One God, the Father, Of whom are all things, and we unto him;

And one Lord Jesus Christ,

Through whom are all things, and we through him;

Who was manifested in the flesh, Justified in the spirit,

Seen of angels, Preached among the nations,

Believed on in the world, Received up in glory;

And one Spirit of truth,

Proceeding from the Father,

Bearing witness of Christ,

Guiding us into all truth,

Declaring unto us the things that are to come,

Bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God,

Having fruit in all goodness, righteousness and truth.

UNISON CONFESSIONS

24. An Ancient Confession of Faith

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary:

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried:

The third day he rose again from the dead:

He ascended into heaven,

And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty:

From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost:

PRAYERS AND COLLECTS

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy name; through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

O ALMIGHTY God, from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift, and who pourest out on all who desire it the Spirit of grace and supplication; Deliver us, when we draw nigh unto thee, from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind; that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections we may worship thee in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. AMEN.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

O GOD, who hast prepared for those who love thee such good things as pass man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

O MOST loving Father, who willest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of thee, and to cast all our cares on thee who carest for us; Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which evermore dwells in thee, and which thou hast manifested to us in thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

DIRECT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

PRAYERS AND COLLECTS

O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly ; grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what thou wouldst have us to do; that the Spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in thy light we may see light, and in thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

O GOD, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; Defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. AMEN.

A General Confession

(To be said by the whole Congregation)

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy name. AMEN.

A Prayer for all Conditions of Men

O GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for thy holy Church universal; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness all those who are any ways afflicted, or distressed, in mind, body, or estate; that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ's sake. AMEN.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and lovingkindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. AMEN.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. AMEN.

SENTENCES

Call to Worship

O MAGNIFY the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Let us search and try our ways, and turn again unto the Lord.

Let us lift up our hearts with our voices unto God in the heavens.

How great is the lovingkindness of the Lord our God, and his compassion unto all such as turn unto him.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and to be had in reverence of all that call upon him.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise. Be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.

For the Lord is good; his kindness endureth forever,
And his faithfulness unto all generations.

O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men.

SENTENCES

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his kindness endureth for ever.

O Lord, open thou our lips,
And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

The Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

Surely the Lord is in this place. This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts.

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

O come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
And show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker: For he is our God,

And we are the people of his pasture, and the flock of his hand.

Come, and let us return unto the Lord; let us follow on to know him; his going forth is sure as the morning; and he shall come to us as the rain, as the latter rain that watereth the earth.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, and he shall lift you up.

Draw nigh unto God, and he will draw nigh unto you.

The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

God is a spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

SENTENCES

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord. In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

Unto you that fear my name, saith the Lord, shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings.

God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

O God, thou art my God, early will I seek thee:

My soul thirsteth for thee, as in a dry and weary land, where no water is;

To behold thy power and thy glory,

Even as I have looked upon thee in the sanctuary.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell among them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and shall be their God.

Call to Worship — Evening

FROM the rising of the sun to the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised.

Let our prayers be set forth as incense, and the lifting up of our hands as the evening sacrifice.

Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord, who by night stand in the house of the Lord.

It shall come to pass, that at evening time there shall be light.

This is the message which we have heard of him, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Rest in the Lord, wait patiently for him, and he shall give thee thy heart's desires.

Seek ye the Lord and his strength; seek his face continually.

I was glad when they said unto me, Come, let us go into the house of the Lord.

Trust in him at all times, ye people; pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us.

Peace, peace, to him that is far off and peace to him that is near, saith the Lord.

Peace to all who enter here. Peace to every one abiding herein.

I will hear what God the Lord will speak; for he will speak peace unto his people and to his saints.

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust.

SENTENCES

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

The day goeth away, and the shadows of the evening are stretched out; but it shall come to pass, that at evening time there shall be light.

Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.

Call to Worship — The Lord's Supper

O TASTE and see how gracious the Lord is:

Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

And the Spirit and the Church say, Come.

And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come.

And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters,

And he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat;

Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do ye spend your money for that which is not bread,

And your labor for that which satisfieth not?

Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good,

And let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live.

Christ, our passover, is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with the old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

If any man will come after me, said Jesus, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

Whosoever will be chief among you let him be your servant; even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother and sister.

SENTENCES

Offertory

FREELY ye have received, freely give.

Let every man give according as he hath purposed in his heart; not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver.

He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly;

And he that soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your worldly things?

Let him that is taught in the word minister unto him that teacheth in all good things.

As we have opportunity, let us do good unto all men, and especially unto them that are of the household of faith.

Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as unto the Lord, and not unto men.

He that giveth, let him do it with liberality; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Render therefore to all, all their dues; owe no man anything, save to love one another.

Let us consider one another, to incite unto love and good works.

Give unto the Most High according as he hath enriched thee, and, as thou hast gotten, give with a generous hand.

All things come of thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given thee.

Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Let us do this in remembrance of Christ, for inasmuch as we do good to one of the least of his brethren we do it unto him.

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich.

Even so, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven:

That ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust.

Ye therefore shall be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Now may he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness.

EDITORIAL NOTES

THIS Hymnal has been in preparation now for a number of years. The Pilgrim Songs for the Sunday-school was but the first product of a systematic undertaking to provide a uniform series of hymnals for the churches of our order. Much of the substance of that book was prepared in view of this, and is here retained, that familiarity with its hymns and tunes may train the young for their part in the praise of the sanctuary, and that there may be one voice of song in all our services. But the gathering of material and enlisting of helpers for the making of this church hymnal antedates even that earlier work. For a long time the editor of the Pilgrim Press had been seeking by conference and correspondence to learn what kind of a hymn-book, in size, contents and quality, was needed and desired among our churches. By the time the editors of this book definitely took up their task, it was already evident that the almost universal demand was for a hymnal not inferior in artistic, literary and musical qualities to the latest and best, but with fewer hymns and tunes.

But, as we were warned and have proved, it is easier and safer to include than to omit. Our first move, therefore, was to learn by resort to a questionnaire, submitted to some two hundred representative men of our churches in all parts of the country, what hymns we might expect general support in omitting. The response to this appeal, very wide and cordial, made only more evident the call for a book of moderate size, and showed what hymns, and type of hymns, the devout feeling and culture of our churches desired to retain, and what to forego. At the same time the variety of judgments expressed brought home to us all the more alarmingly how impossible it would be to satisfy all preferences. We take refuge in the hope that any who are disappointed in not finding herein hymns or tunes which they value, or matings they prefer, will more readily acquiesce, since the sacrifice is called for not by mere editorial decree, but in deference to the wisdom of many counselors. Such wisdom has been our support, not only through the specific and painstaking answers to our questions, hereby gratefully acknowledged, but through carefully prepared lists of hymns and tunes, valuable information and suggestions, and other assistance continuously rendered by many zealous and interested co-workers; among whom are the following:

Rev. Theodore D. Bacon, Rev. William E. Barton, Rev. James C. Blaisdell, Rev. Edwin H. Byington, Rev. Frederic E. Dewhurst, Rev. Richard G. Greene, Rev. Charles E. Jefferson, Rev. William A. Knight, Rev. Robert W. McLaughlin, Rev. Daniel Merriman, Rev. Theodore T. Munger, Rev. James H. Ross, Rev. Wilmot E. Stevens, Mr. H. G. Gilmore, Miss Susan Hayes Ward, Prof. John W. Buckham, Pac. Theol. Sem., Cal.; Prof. Waldo S. Pratt, Hartford Theol. Sem.; Pres. Wm. F. Slocum, Colorado College; Pres. Wm. De Witt Hyde, Bowdoin College, Me.; Pres. Charles F. Thwing, Cleveland, Ohio.

A yet smaller group of men, have aided in the progress of the work with study and counsel so constantly and efficiently that they have practically rendered the services of an Advisory Cabinet. They are:

Pres. Sam. V. Cole, Norton, Mass.; Pres. Edward D. Eaton, Beloit, Wis.; Dr. Edwin P. Parker, Hartford, Conn.; Rev. Lucius H. Thayer, Portsmouth, N.H.; Rev. Charles F. Carter, Lexington, Mass.; Rev. J. B. Irvine, Jr., Los Angeles, Cal.; Rev. Charles H. Oliphant, Methuen, Mass. The first four named have reviewed the collection of hymns as a whole in arrangement and proportion of subjects, minutely commented on single features and hymns, and suggested valuable additions. A similar work has been done for the musical settings by the last three. A yet more responsible and efficient part has been taken by Dr. Washington Gladden, of Columbus, Ohio. Finding that this Hymnal was being made on much the same lines as one he had projected, some two years ago he merged his plans and material with ours, and has since stood in the relation of associate editor of the Pilgrim Hymnal. Mr. Frederic Field Bullard has for this, as for the former book, served as expert musical editor, and brought to the work, as to a labor of love, unstinted industry and enthusiasm.

The wealth of hymns, old and new, here gathered together out of the rich treasury of English religious verse, will afford, we hope, unsuspected resources for all uses and occasions in worship. The value of this in use, however, must depend upon the musical settings. As will be seen at once, this book allies itself with the now growing endeavor to keep religious song abreast with the general progress of musical taste and culture. Its music is no less refined, noble, and worthy of its sacred function than that of the best later hymnals, but, we believe, will be found to excel in the number of tunes that are simple, melodious and singable by the common people. Congregational singing is also favored by the relatively small number of tunes, the large proportion of these that are familiar, the practice of repeating the best, and of grouping together on an opening hymns of the same meter, so that a choice of tunes is furnished for each hymn. Of the tunes forty per cent are either old, or are the generally used newer English tunes. About an equal number are more modern tunes used in later hymnals and fast becoming familiar. Hence all churches will find a considerable number of tunes already known to them, set for the most part to the customary hymns. Moreover the plan of grouping hymns of like meter, while it encourages the singing of each hymn to its own most appropriate tune, permits it to be sung to a familiar tune found on the same opening. A third, therefore, or it may be a half of the hymns in the book can be used from the outset by any people, and fully two-thirds by congregations musically more advanced. Furthermore there are a score of new tunes, the learning of which, since they are used more than once, will put three times as many hymns in the familiar class. In view of these facts it seems not too much to hope that with the output of but a little zeal and energy, many a people will soon be able to sing all the hymns in the collection — an impossible attainment when the hymns in a book are bound to seven hundred or nine hundred tunes.

A hymnal often remains for those who use it an unexplored labyrinth with its riches unknown or but half discovered. The endeavor to reveal and put in easy reach this hid treasure we have thought worthy of a large share of editorial labor, and the best art and device of the printer. On the principle of, first things first, the book opens at once to words of praise, — Hymns, Chants, Readings and other aids to worship. All things of meaner rank, which sometimes cumber the porch of the sanctuary — explanatory and business notes, indexes and the like — are pushed into the background at the end of the book. There will be found all indexes, those having to do with tunes grouped together, then those of hymns, bringing last, where it can be most readily found, that most used, the Index of First Lines. The Classification and Order of the Hymns, not theological or conventional in motive, but rather natural and practical, further favors this order of precedence according to honor and use in worship; and results happily in bringing together evening and closing hymns, which cannot well be separated, and in putting, at the beginning of the book, hymns for the Opening, at the end, hymns for the Close of Service. As a ready guide to subjects, the Order of Hymns is shown in a separate table, on the leaf before the hymns. On each opening will be found a general head at the left, and subhead at the right, and over each hymn a title which still further narrows down the classification, and completes the definition of its meaning and purpose. Supplementary to these helps in finding hymns suitable to theme and occasion, there is given just before the Index of First Lines an Index of Subjects, prepared, in fraternal sympathy with baffled ministers, by the editor. This has been in the process of making almost since the Hymnal was begun. Every artifice within reach has been used to make it inclusive, yet simple and condensed, and to bring quickly under the eye all information sought. So far as could be done without unduly swelling the bulk, reference is by first lines. But groups of hymns are cited by numbers, and when two or three successive hymns come under one subject, the line and number are given of the first only; the others are implied by the number in parentheses.

In no other way so fully as in the use of her hymns, does the Church as yet realize her world-wide unity through the ages; and it has seemed to us to be one service that a hymnal should render, to bring into evidence this actual communion of saints in which we are all the time joining. While we have not cared to distract the spirit of devotion with antiquarian or pedantic details, we have wished to make the most of the historic and personal associations which enhance the appeal of the hymn to the spirit of fellowship, by giving in some fullness the name of the author and indicating his period by the date after the name, which shows when the hymn was written or published, or when the author lived. We have also given as often as possible, the title chosen by the author for his hymn, putting it in single quotation points. In case of translated hymns, we have hoped to keep those who must sing them in English in closer sympathy with those who wrote and first used them, by giving the first line of the original in the place of a title. We have sought to recover the original text of hymns, and to admit no change which seems to pervert the author's meaning to any faith or utterance other than he intended. Nevertheless, the more one comes to know hymns by working among them, the more evident it becomes that our hymns, like the Psalms, are not only the possession, but the voice, of a worshipping people. They often have a collective inspiration; and the original author is best honored by permitting his hymn to speak the praise of God in that perfection of fitness for the uses of the sanctuary to which it has been brought, by later poets, or in the pious use of the people. The fact that a hymn has been emended is shown by printing the author's name in italics. Hymns, being often selections from longer poems, gain most from editorial labor, through the wise choice of verses, and often rearrangement of them, so that the hymn may begin with the right note and make a progressive unity. Every hymn in this book has been edited with care in these respects, in the hope to commend it better to the hearts and use of our people, and encourage them in the practice of singing the whole hymn.

To the hymns are added a few Sentences and Versicles, set to music in full notation, and hence, unlike the conventional chant-form, practicable, with but little training, either for choir or congregation. We have made room also for a selection of the most commonly used Canticles, and would call attention to the system of pointing used in the music, which has manifest features of advantage over methods hitherto customary; above all, is simple and easily understood.

Each line of the text is divided by an upright bar into two portions, a Recitative and a Rhythmic, corresponding to the measures of the music. The first, or Recitative portion, is sung to the first tone of the music, rapidly, as in speaking, with, however, a marked pause on the italicized word. The Rhythmic, which should follow without pause the Recitative, is sung in strict time like an allegro in 2-2 tempo. A dash after a word indicates that the word is to be prolonged through the half measure. A dot used when there are three notes or more in the measure, represents the center of the measure, and guides to the true accent of the words. The first line of the words should be sung to the first half, the second, in the same manner, to the second half of the music. Each singing of the music requires two lines of the text, except in the case of a double chant, which takes four lines of the text each time that the music is sung. The effect is as if two chants were sung alternately. By introducing cadences and modulations, still further richness and variety may be given to the music.

The hymnal has been made more complete as a manual of praise by the inclusion of liturgical material from the Bible, prepared for responsive and unison reading. One aim has controlled the selection, arrangement, English renderings and responsive division, namely, edification in common worship. Only such Psalms, and portions or phrases of Psalms have been adopted as in sentiment and euphony seem congenial to the hearts and lips of Christian people joining in praise. The range of subjects has been greatly enlarged by resort to lyrical passages in the Prophets. The New Testament, we have reluctantly to acknowledge, affords scarcely a portion of many consecutive verses, suited to recitative use in praise. But there are precious fragments, scattered through almost all the Christian writings, — happily such as are expressive of the chief springs of Christian emotion, faith, hope and love, — which show at least a tendency to rhythm, parallelism and liturgical feeling. These we have grouped together in a few readings, which it is hoped may be found a feasible and welcome enrichment to this form of praise. The readings, while not mosaics, classify the Scripture selections under subjects. While relatively short, they are purposely made of different lengths, but so grouped, and at times sub-divided, that they may readily be used in longer or shorter portions, and in various arrangements, according to individual preference, or theme and occasion. If these Readings and Other Aids to Worship approve themselves in use, the grateful appreciation of those who benefit by them must first of all be given to Rev. Lucius H. Thayer of Portsmouth, N. H., who has planned and, for the most part, worked out into form the whole collection.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THE publishers and editors desire to express their warm sense of obligation to the many authors who will find their hymns included in this collection, but in especial measure to the following named hymn-writers who have not only given consent to the use of their hymns, but have been interested to bring the sources of them to our knowledge, to furnish the preferred text, or even to revise their hymns, if this seemed advantageous, and to help in the choice of fitting titles and tunes:

Acknowledgments are made to the following owners of copyrights for freely granting permission to use copyrighted hymns: Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., for the hymns of Whittier, Holmes, Lowell, W. C. Gannett, F. L. Hosmer, Mrs. Howe, Miss Larcom, Mrs. Mason, Miss Scudder; Little, Brown & Co., for the hymns of J. W. Chadwick; The United Society of Christian Endeavor, for a hymn of Charles A. Dickinson; Miss Alice W. Longfellow, for hymns of S. W. Longfellow; Prof. George H. Palmer, for a hymn of Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer.

We would also express our indebtedness to those who have gone before us in the work of gathering and editing for use hymns and tunes, and especially to such distinguished hymnologists and editors as Rev. John Julian, Rev. W. Garrett Horder, Rev. Frederic M. Bird, Rev. John Hunter, who have cordially encouraged and assisted us in our work.

Among the many composers to whom we are indebted for tunes, we gratefully mention the following who have written for us: Percy Lee Atherton, Frederic F. Bullard, Charles H. Oliphant, Horatio Parker, Henry J. Storer, and the Musical Editor, Charles L. Ziegler. To the following proprietors of tunes we are indebted for the use of copyright material: Mrs. Henry Basford, Chautauqua Assembly, Oliver Ditson Co., E. K. Glezen, John F. Gower, Rev. C. L. Hutchins, Beekman F. Illsley, George F. Le Jeune, The Outlook Co., H. R. Palmer, Mus. D., Rev. E. P. Parker, D.D., Horatio Parker, Mus. D., Lewis H. Redner, George C. Stebbins, C. W. Thompson & Co., Universalist Pub. House.

Ancient of Days, who sittest throned . . .	42	Break thou the bread of life	364
And art thou come with us to dwell	81	Breathe on me, Breath of God	71
And now the wants are told, that brought .	512	Brightest and best of the sons of the . . .	104
Angels, from the realms of glory	96	Brightly gleams our banner	324
Another year is dawning	453	Bring, O morn, thy music! bring, O night .	26
Another year of setting suns	451	Brother, hast thou wandered far	157
Around my path life's mysteries	427	By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored . .	360
Art thou weary, art thou languid	163	By cool Siloam's shady rill	369
(As Christ upon the cross)	See 515
As darker, darker, fall around	506	Calm on the listening ear of night	99
As shadows cast by cloud and sun	93	Christ for the world! we sing	377
As the sun's enlivening eye	542	(Christ leads me thro' no darker rooms) See	232
As with gladness men of old	102	Christ, whose glory fills the skies	149
At all times praise the Lord	259	Christian, dost thou see them	315
At even, ere the sun was set	490	Christian, rise, and act thy creed	302
At evening time, when day is done	533	City of God, how broad and far	336
Awake, awake, O Zion	383	(Come, all ye faithful)	See 97
Awake, my soul, and with the sun	482	Come, brothers, let us go	522
Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve . . .	316	(Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove) See	68
Awhile in spirit, Lord, to thee	105	Come, Holy Ghost, in love	21
		Come, Holy Spirit, come	70
Before Jehovah's awful throne	415	Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove	68

Come, Jesus, Redeemer, abide thou	176	Father of love, our Guide and Friend	233
Come, kingdom of our God	398	Father, thy presence ever near	536
Come, let us all unite and sing	38	Father, to us thy children, humbly	16
Come, let us join our cheerful songs	144	(Father, whate'er of earthly bliss)	See 230
(Come, let us join our friends above)	See 341	Fight the good fight with all thy might	319
Come, let us join with faithful souls	345	Fill thou my life, O Lord, my God	271
Come, let us raise a common song	395	Fling out the banner! let it float	386
Come, let us sing a tender song	431	(For a season called to part)	See 542
Come, my soul, thou must be waking	475	For all the saints who from their labors	340
Come, said Jesus' sacred voice	155	For me to live is Christ	171
Come, take thy stand beneath the cross	126	For mercies past we praise thee, Lord	545
Come, thou almighty King	20	For the beauty of the earth	263
Come, thou long-expected Jesus	88	For thy mercy and thy grace	450
Come to Jesus, ye who labor	161	Forgive, O Lord, the doubts that break	221
(Come to our poor nature's night)	See 74	Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go	295

HYMN

Gone are those great and good	420
Gracious Saviour, gentle Shepherd . . .	372
Great God, how infinite art thou . . .	45
Great God, we sing that mighty hand . .	449
Great God, who knowest each man's need	493
Guide me, O thou great Jehovah . . .	242
Hail, gladdening Light,—of His pure . .	516
Hail, holy Light! the world rejoices . .	486
Hail, sacred day of earthly rest	470
Hail to the Lord's Anointed	379
Hail, tranquil hour of closing day . . .	504
Hark, hark, my soul	426
Hark, hark! the notes of joy	94
Hark! the herald angels sing	90
Hark, the glad sound, the Saviour comes	91
Hark the song of Jubilee	385
Hath not thy heart within thee burned .	507
He hides within the lily	52
He leadeth me: O blessed thought . . .	241
He leads us on by paths	245
He liveth long who liveth well	306
Heaven is here, where hymns of gladness	282
Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to face	366
Hills of God, break forth in singing . .	89
Ho! ye that rest beneath the rock . . .	286
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty . .	3
Holy Spirit, Infinite	74
Holy Spirit, Lord of light	78
Holy Spirit, Truth divine	69
Hope on, hope on! the golden days . . .	264
How are thy servants blest, O Lord . . .	444
How beauteous were the marks divine . .	122
How blest thy first disciples, Lord . . .	357
How firm a foundation, ye saints	225
How gentle God's commands	203
How happy is he born and taught . . .	307
How near to us, O God, thou art	55
How shall I follow him I serve	124
How sweet and silent is the place . . .	356
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds . .	192
I am trusting thee, Lord Jesus	164
(I bow my forehead to the dust)	See 214
I cannot think of them as dead	432

HYMN

I cannot walk in darkness long	243
I do not ask, O Lord, that life may be .	234
I heard the voice of Jesus say	154
I hunger and I thirst	361
I little see, I little know	250
I look to thee in every need	211
I love thy kingdom, Lord	348
I see the wrong that round me lies . .	214
I sought the Lord, and afterward . . .	156
I worship thee, sweet will of God . . .	227
(If on our daily course our mind) . . .	See 481
If thou but suffer God to guide thee . .	246
If through unruffled seas	255
Immortal Love, forever full	152
Immortal Love, within whose righteous .	239
In all my vast concerns with thee . . .	62
In heavenly love abiding	224
In the cross of Christ I glory	123
In the hour of trial	181
It came upon the midnight clear	98
It singeth low in every heart	434
I've found a Friend, O such a Friend .	189
Jerusalem the glorious	442
Jerusalem the golden	441
Jesus calls us, o'er the tumult	170
Jesus Christ is risen to-day	134
Jesus, Fountain of my days	148
Jesus, I my cross have taken	166
"Jesus is risen!" Lift up your glad voices	138
Jesus, Lover of my soul	182
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun . . .	387
Jesus, the very thought of thee	193
Jesus, these eyes have never seen . . .	191
Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts	358
Joy to the world! the Lord is come . . .	92
Just as I am, thine own to be	158
Just as I am, without one plea	159
Land where the banners wave last . . .	423
Lead, kindly Light, amid	240
Lead on, O King Eternal	322
Lead us, O Father, in the paths	244
Leader of faithful souls, and Guide . . .	532

HYMN

Let saints on earth in concert sing	341
Life of ages, richly poured	49
Lift up, lift up your voices now	139
Lift up your heads, rejoice	84
Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates	83
Light of Light, enlighten me	474
Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart	389
Light of the soul, O Saviour blest	23
Light of the world, for ever, ever shining	145
Light of the world, we hail thee	381
Light of the world's dark story	268
Lo, the day of rest declineth	524
Lo, the earth is risen again	458
Looking upward every day	175
Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee	173
Lord, as we thy name profess	304
Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing	541
Lord, for to-morrow and its needs	248
Lord God of morning and of night	480
Lord, I know thy grace is nigh me	113
Lord, it belongs not to my care	232
Lord Jesus, when we stand afar	121
Lord, lead the way the Saviour went	280
Lord of all being, throned afar	54
Lord of our life, and God of our	338
Lord of the gracious sunshine	411
Lord, speak to me, that I may speak	287
Lord, when we bend before thy throne	17
Lord, while for all mankind we pray	416
Love divine, all love excelling	184
Majestic sweetness sits enthroned	188
Make haste, O man, to live	308
March on, march on, O ye soldiers true	328
March on, O soul, with strength	329
Master, no offering	272
Men whose boast it is that ye	314
Mine eyes have seen the glory	408
More love to thee, O Christ	194
My country, 'tis of thee	417
My dear Redeemer and my Lord	112
My faith looks up to thee	180
My God and Father, while I stray	229
My God, how wonderful thou art	32
My God, I thank thee who hast made	260

HYMN

My God, is any hour so sweet	14
My song is love unknown	117
My soul, be on thy guard	320
My spirit on thy care	253
Nearer, my God, to thee	208
New every morning is the love	481
Not always on the mount may we	110
Not long on Hermon's holy height	111
Not on this day, O Lord, alone	537
Not so in haste, my heart	256
Now God be with us, for the night	496
Now, on land and sea descending	523
Now sing we a song for the harvest	465
Now thank we all our God	8
Now that the day-star glimmers bright	483
Now the day is over	505
Now the wings of day are furled	511
Now, when the dusky shades of night	476
Now while we sing our closing psalm	543
"O Beautiful, my country!"	418
O blessed life! the heart at rest	196
O blest Creator of the light	508
O brother man, fold to thy heart	274
O cease, my wandering soul	204
O come, all ye faithful, joyful	97
(O come and mourn with me awhile) See	126
O day of rest and gladness	473
O everlasting Light	34
O for a closer walk with God	206
O Friend divine, with thee apart	359
O God, beneath thy guiding hand	421
O God, by whom the seed is given	538
O God, I thank thee for each sight	479
O God of Bethel, by whose hand	44
O God of truth, whose living word	313
O God, our God, thou shinest here	47
(O God, our help in ages past) See	46
O God, the Rock of Ages	43
O God, thou Giver of all good	265
O God, thou in thy love dost make	79
O God, thy world is sweet with prayer	22
O God, unseen, but ever near	362
O God, while generations flee	48

INDEX OF FIRST LINES

HYMN

O God, who workest hitherto	296
O God, whose love is near	254
O God, whose presence glows in all	13
O heavenly gift of love divine	76
O Holy Ghost, the Comforter	75
O holy Lord, content to fill	375
O holy Saviour, Friend unseen	169
O Jesus, I have promised	168
O Jesus, thou art standing	167
(O King of earth, and air, and sea). . . .	See 547
O King of mercy, from thy throne	363
O Life that maketh all things new	351
O Light of life, O Saviour dear	492
O little town of Bethlehem	100
O Lord and Master of us all	151
O Lord, in whom are all my springs	197
O Lord of heaven, and earth, and sea . . .	266
O Lord of hosts, almighty King	414
O Lord of life, and love, and power	291
O Lord of life, once laid in	137
O Lord of life, thy quickening voice	477
O Lord of life, where'er they be	438
O Love divine, that stooped to share	177
O Love divine, whose constant beam	402
O Love! O Life! our faith and sight	150
O Love of God, how strong and true	179
O Love of God most full	41
O Love that wilt not let me go	199
O Master, Brother, Lord and Friend	190
O Master, let me walk with thee	279
O mean may seem this house of clay	86
O mother dear, Jerusalem	440
O praise the Lord our God	9
O sacred Head, now wounded	131
O, sometimes gleams upon our sight	404
O Son of Man, — thy name by choice	376
O Source divine, and Life of all	31
O Spirit of the living God	388
O still in accents sweet and strong	288
O thou great Friend to all the sons	146
O Thou, in all thy might so far	57
O thou not made with hands	331
O thou true Life of all that live	494
O Thou who sealest up the past	447
O Thou whose liberal sun and rain	352

HYMN

O Thou whose perfect goodness crowns . .	353
O, 'twas a joyful sound to hear	347
O where are kings and empires now	335
(O who like thee so calm, so bright)	See 122
O Word of God incarnate	391
O worship the King all glorious above . .	1
(O worship the Lord in the beauty of) . .	See 2
On wings of living light	136
Once more the liberal year laughs out	464
One holy Church of God appears	337
One Lord there is, all lords above	33
One sole baptismal sign	349
One there is, above all others	187
Onward, Christian soldiers	323
Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed	73
Our day of praise is done	520
Our Father, hear our longing prayer	301
Our God, our help in ages past	46
Out of the dark the circling sphere	407
Part in peace: is day before us	525
Past are the cross, the scourge, the thorn . .	132
Peace of God, which knows no measure . . .	527
Peace, perfect peace, in this dark world . .	238
Peacefully round us the shadows	502
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow . .	5
Praise, my soul, the King of heaven	4
Praise the Lord, ye heavens, adore him . . .	25
Praise to God and thanks we bring	469
Praise to God, immortal praise	462
Purer yet and purer	174
Rejoice, all ye believers	82
Rejoice, the Lord is King	457
Rejoice, ye pure in heart	330
Rest for the weary hands is good	219
Rest in the Lord, my soul	257
Rest of the weary	185
Ride on, ride on in majesty	114
Ring out the old	448
Rock of Ages, cleft for me	129
Saviour, again to thy dear name	530
Saviour, breathe an evening blessing	531
Saviour, like a shepherd lead us	373

INDEX OF FIRST LINES

	HYMN
Saviour, teach me day by day	195
Saviour, who thy life didst give	290
See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand	368
Send down thy truth, O God	397
Shall we grow weary in our watch	118
Shepherd of tender youth	367
Silent, like men in solemn haste	309
Sing we of the Golden City	401
Sing we the song of those who stand	342
Sleep thy last sleep	437
Slowly, by thy hand unfurled	509
(Slowly, slowly darkening)	See 427
Softly now the light of day	518
Softly the silent night	500
Soldiers of Christ, arise	318
Sometimes a light surprises	223
(Souls of men, why will ye scatter)	See 40
Spirit divine, attend our prayer	67
Spirit of God, descend upon my heart	66
Stand up, stand up for Jesus	321
Standing at the portal	454
Star of peace to wanderers weary	446
Still, still with thee, when purple	209
Still will we trust, tho' earth seem	235
Still with thee, O my God	59
Strong Son of God, immortal Love	147
Summer suns are glowing	460
Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear	491
Sunset and evening star	429
Sweet is thy mercy, Lord	201
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go	534
Sweeter to Jesus when on earth	178
Sweetly the holy hymn	485
Take my heart, O Father, take it	160
Take my life, and let it be	303
Teach me, my God and King	299
Ten thousand times ten thousand	439
Tender mercies on my way	261
(That mystic word of thine)	See 365
The breaking waves dashed high	422
The changing years, eternal God	50
The child leans on its parent's breast	258
The Church's one foundation	339
The city paved with gold	332

	HYMN
The day is gently sinking to a close	514
The day is past and over	517
The day, O Lord, is spent	521
The day of prayer is ending	519
The day of resurrection	135
The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended	487
The eternal gates lift up their heads	140
The glory of the spring how sweet	459
(The golden gates are lifted up)	See 140
The King of love my Shepherd is	200
The light pours down from heaven	292
The Lord be with us as we bend	535
The Lord is in his Holy Place	53
The Lord is rich and merciful	39
The Lord my Shepherd is	202
The morning light is breaking	380
The old year's long campaign is o'er	455
The peace which God bestows	529
The radiant morn hath passed away	501
The saints of God! Their conflict past	435
The sands of time are sinking	428
The shadows of the evening hours	497
The Son of God goes forth to war	325
The strife is o'er, the battle done	133
The sun is sinking fast	515
The twilight falls, the night is near	513
There are coming changes great	406
There is a book, who runs may read	29
There is a green hill far away	128
There is a safe and secret place	205
There is no sorrow, Lord, too light	183
(There's a wideness in God's mercy)	See 40
There's not a bird with lonely nest	58
These things shall be,—a loftier race	403
Thine are all the gifts, O God	285
Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old	108
Thirsting for a living spring	300
This is the day of light	472
Thou art, O God, the life and light	28
Thou didst leave thy throne	101
Thou Grace divine, encircling all	198
Thou hast gone up again	141
Thou hidden love of God, whose height	213
Thou hidden Source of calm repose	212
Thou Life within my life, than self	63

	Hymn		Hymn
Thou Lord of life, our saving health	283	We come unto our fathers' God	344
Thou who dost all things give	36	We give thee but thine own	278
Thou whose almighty word	390	We join with all, in every place	355
Though home be dear, and life be sweet . . .	430	(We may not climb the heavenly steep) See	152
Tho' lowly here our lot may be	297	We plough the fields, and scatter	406
Through Him who all our sickness felt . . .	281	We pray no more, made lowly wise . . .	51
Through the day thy love has spared us . . .	528	We see not, know not; all our way . . .	228
Thro' the night of doubt and sorrow . . .	326	What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone . .	119
Thus heaven is gathering, one by one . . .	433	"What means this glory round our feet" .	87
Thy bounteous hand with food can bless . .	547	What thou wilt, O Father, give	277
Thy home is with the humble, Lord	77	When all thy mercies, O my God	267
Thy kingdom come, O God	399	When courage fails, and faith burns low .	312
Thy kingdom come! on bendet knee	400	When I survey life's varied scene	230
Thy name, O Lord, in sweet accord	19	When I survey the wondrous cross	125
Thy presence, ever-living God	516	When morning gilds the skies	10
Thy way is in the deep, O Lord	215	When my love to God grows weak	120
Thy way, not mine, O Lord	226	When our heads are bowed with woe . . .	130
'Tis winter now; the fallen snow	468	When spring's soft breath, and softer . .	262
To do thy holy will	269	When the day of toil is done	436
To Him who children blessed	371	When the Lord of Love was here	109
To our Redeemer's glorious name	115	When the weary, seeking rest	15
To sacrifice, to share	275	When this song of praise shall cease . . .	539
To thee, O God in heaven	370	When thro' the torn sail the wild	445
To thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise . . .	461	When thy heart, with joy o'erflowing . .	273
To thee, our God, we fly	412	When wilt thou save the people	410
To thine eternal arms, O God	216	"Where is your God?" they say	65
'Twixt gleams of joy and clouds of doubt .	220	Where'er, O Lord, thy people meet . . .	12
Unshaken as the sacred hill	218	While shepherds watched their flocks . .	95
(Uplift the banner, let it float) . . . See	386	While thee I seek, protecting Power . . .	24
Upon the hills the wind is bleak	503	Wilt Thou not visit me	61
Upward where the stars are burning	425	With songs and honors sounding loud . .	456
Was there ever kindest shepherd	40	Work is sweet, for God has blest	294
